

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

THE RECORD—Palm Springs always leads the field. The metropolitan papers made much of a news item from Pittsburgh which told of the predicament of a woman who declared 1000 cans of food when she applied for Ration Book No. 2. They figured she wouldn't be entitled to any more coupons until 1960. . . That's nothing. Armand Turonnet, chairman of the food panel of the local rationing board said that on Monday a woman at the Frances S. Stevens school declared 1035 cans of food. She also has 18 years to wait for coupons. . . You just can't beat the Villagers.

RETRIBUTION — This week Elmer Taunton and Bill Lux of the Palm Springs police force were inducted into Uncle Sam's Army. Both were eager to go. The only hope and prayer they voiced was that they would NOT have to serve under any of the non-coms or lieutenants and captains that they had to toss into the klink here on various occasions. . . George R. Boomer says things are going to be all right. At this time of the year, each evening the sun, shining across the mountains, forms a perfect golden V on the mountains just north of town.

VICTORY OR BUST — In Morse or Continental code the signal for "V" is three dots and a dash. Anybody who listens to the radio knows that. An eastern manufacturer had a bright idea. He decided to put that design on all of the bolt heads he put into his machines. Trouble is that half of the bolt heads, when they were tightened, were upside down and showed a dash and three dots which is the code for "B". But you couldn't stop him. "Sure, that's all right. Just put on there, V or B—Victory or Bust!" he said.

GREMLINS—Some bright man popularized the Gremlins. Now if anything goes wrong—just blame it on those invisible little people who love to throw monkey wrenches into things. Last week I commented briefly on the fact that in a metropolitan paper's 25-years-ago column it mentioned that Thomas O'Donnell had been appointed oil commissioner for California. . . Mr. O'Donnell called to say he did not want to take credit for any office he never held. He never was oil commissioner of California. Fact is, he was appointed to take charge of oil production for the entire nation by Mark Requa, chief of the oil division of the national fuel administration during the first World War. . . It must have been the Gremlins.

MORE OF SAME — And the Gremlins also got into my type—

Eddie Cantor Will Be Here Wednesday

Eddie Cantor, famous radio comedian, and his company will be in Palm Springs Wednesday evening to broadcast his regular program from the Plaza theater. Service men from local and nearby posts will be guests. It is Cantor's broadcast to all of the men in uniform all over the globe.

Lt. Florian Boyd in Village on Furlough

Lt. Florian Boyd, USN, former holder of many important civic offices until he left the Village for the Quonset Point, R. I., naval air training school, was in Palm Springs this week on a brief furlough before being assigned to active duty. He completed his course at the naval school a week ago today.

Bowling Academy Contribution Big Aid in Bond Drive

If Adolph Schickelgruber could have been at the Palm Springs Bowling Academy last Friday night, he would have something more to worry about. Village bowlers on "War Stamp" night, turned out in force, bought $855.50 in war savings stamps and also several bonds, boosting the total for the evening to well over $1000. The event was arranged by Joe Henderson, operator of the alleys who contributed everything needed to make it a great evening and the fee per game was the purchase of a 50-cent stamp. And every bowler went after the pins as if the face of Hitler was painted on each one.

THE RUSH IS ON—When Sam Reese bought $550 in bonds at Monday's great bond rally here, stipulating that 22 kids were to get a ride in the jeeps, there was a great scramble to be first among the kids. There are many times 22 youngsters in the long line which can be seen here, stretching far down the street. They all got a ride.

Alphabetical Plan
Successful in Ending Confusion

With two days more to go, more than 6,000 Villagers and residents of surrounding communities, under the jurisdiction of the Palm Springs War Price and Rationing board, had applied for Ration Book No. 2 up to Thursday evening, William A. Lippman, chairman of the board announced today.

Today and tomorrow those who were unable to register during the days their names were listed in the alphabetical plan adopted by the board, will apply.

Mr. Lippman and his aides were highly pleased with the success of the alphabetical plan which had been put into effect.

Although the time to inform the public was short, applicants came in on the days designated and as a result there was a steady stream of people instead of lulls and then great jams.

The rationing board is of the opinion that under the plan hundreds of hours of waiting were avoided, the chance for errors due to a sudden rush, eliminated and the confusion, which attended previous registrations, avoided.

PRAISE MISS FINCHY

Mr. Lippman, speaking for the board, today expressed the appreciation of all of the board for the fine co-operation of the public and especially the fine work of Miss Katherine Finchy, Desert School district superintendent, who handled the arrangements for the registration.

He also said the board was extremely grateful to all of the teachers and other citizens who gave so generously of their time and energy to this huge task.

The meeting was arranged by Mr. Gibbs.

Village Red Cross
Workers Will Seek
$10,200 Locally

BY MARGARET CREE

A shaft of light in the murk of war—such is the American Red Cross.

Alleviation of the wounds of conflict, wound of the heart as well as of the body, is the base of the Red Cross program, and to take care of the tremendously expanded need during the coming months the American Red Cross is starting next Monday, March 1, its War Fund Drive.

The cost of relief from war needs money just as surely as does war itself. The national sum to be collected is $125,000,000. Of this Riverside county will give $85,000, and Palm Springs is asked for $10,200.

Carl E. Haymond is chairman of the war fund campaign, and Wednesday afternoon met with members of his committee and others in a planning session at the Fiesta House of the Desert Inn. At that time definite plans for collecting as much money as possible with the least difficulty for the donor, were discussed. Everything is now ready for Monday morning.

Acting as the special committee with Mr. Haymond are Philip Boyd, advanced and special gifts; Jill Moore, labor and industries; Carl Lykken, merchants and business houses; Juanita Bosworth, schools; Harold Hicks, (Continued on Page Two)

Lt. Jacques Simon And Bride in Village

Lt. Jacques Simon and his bride of a few weeks arrived in Palm Springs this week for a brief visit with Lt. Simon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Simon. Lt. Simon was married in New York shortly after being commissioned upon completion of his course at the Victorville pilot training school.

Father of Village Woman Taken by Death in Redlands

Last rites for James L. Beck, 82, father of Mrs. Alvin Weingarten, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p. m. at the F. Arthur Cortney chapel in Redlands.

Mr. Beck succumbed Tuesday after a long illness, at his home in Redlands.

A native of Ohio, he had been a resident there for 17 years. Mr. and Mrs. Weingarten, who were called to Redlands Tuesday, spent most of the week there and will return to Palm Springs Monday.

Proclamation!

WHEREAS, the men of our armed forces are fighting and dying on the far-flung battlefronts of the world—from the steaming jungles of New Guinea to the sunbaked sands of Africa—on the sea and in the air; and

WHEREAS, the success of our forces in preserving a world where men and women may be free depends on the support and inspiration they get from the peoples back home; and

WHEREAS, it is the privilege and duty of every man and woman and child to serve the cause of humanity in every manner possible and to as great extent as possible; and

WHEREAS, it is the aim of peace-loving people of our nation to contribute in sweat and toil and sacrifice—sacrifice of luxuries and comforts to the support of those men who are risking and giving their lives for us; and

WHEREAS, at the same time our home front must be prepared to cope not only with possible attack on our shores but with natural disasters, such as earthquake, flood, hurricane, tornado, drought, fire, explosion or epidemic; and

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross is equipped and ready to carry on in our own and every community such indispensable welfare programs as public health nursing, home nursing, first aid, water safety and accident prevention, and through the Junior Red Cross in the schools, to act as the medium for service by our young people; and

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross is able and ready to render protection and relief in case of the aforementioned disasters;

THEREFORE, I, Frank Shannon, Mayor of Palm Springs, in accord with the President of the United States who has proclaimed March as Red Cross Month, do call on all public spirited people of this community to make every effort to support the 1943 Red Cross War Fund. I urge every man and woman, boy and girl to give their support by contributing through our local chapter to the Red Cross War Fund; and I further proclaim that it is the sense of all of us who are residents of Palm Springs that our gifts must be larger than ever this year, in order to enable this great national organization of ours to meet whatever demands are made upon it.

FRANK V. SHANNON.

Aircraft Warning Volunteers Honored

The loyal and faithful volunteers who have served long hours, during hot days and chilly nights, keeping an eye on the skies, maintaining a constant vigil from the moment the Japs struck at Pearl Harbor a year and a quarter ago, are being honored this week and Palm Springs joined with the other southern California cities in paying tribute to these men and women.

The week, February 20 to 27, has been designated as Aircraft Warning Week in honor of those who are helping in the Ground Observation corps and to aid in recruiting new volunteers for this very essential service.

AMONG OLDEST

The Palm Springs observation post is among the oldest in the state. It was organized in August, 1941, three months before the war started, by the army air force as a preparedness move because of the clouding Pacific situation.

It has been functioning since then. During the first three months, the post was a skeleton organization but with trained personnel.

The moment word was flashed here of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, the post went into action and has been in operation without a let-up every hour since.

The post was first set up at the fire station and Fire Chief Bill Leoncio was the first chief observer.

Story of Stabbing Is Investigated By Chief Sanard

Chief of Police Lyle J. Sanard today was investigating the story told by George Montayo, who staggered into the police station at 1:30 a. m. Thursday, holding a blood-soaked handkerchief to his stomach and declaring that he had been held up and robbed.

Montayo, who told local police he was from New York and vacationing here, told county hospital authorities after he had been rushed there, that he lived in Hollywood.

Chief Sanard placed a technical hold on Montayo whose condition, hospital attendants said, was "fair."

Bomber Campaign Races On Toward New Record

Rush to Purchase Bonds So Great
Tabulators Fall Behind; Village
Is Heading for National Honors

Palm Springs bought that heavy bomber. Before the curtain is rung down on the February drive, it may also have enough extra to buy a fighter plane to go with that bomber, provided enough cash to train pilots and a little extra for fuel, and guns and ammunition.

The exact amount of bonds purchased by enthusiastic Villagers and winter visitors is not known today. The rush was so great that tabulators are far behind, despite the fact that they are working late into the night.

WELL OVER TOP

But Palm Springs is well over the top, and enthusiastic boosters for the drive are even estimating the total at the end of the month will be a half million.

Palm Springs achieved two goals in its February "Buy a Bomber" drive.

It bought enough bonds to provide money for the purchase of a heavy bomber for Uncle Sam, the craft to be named "City of Palm Springs," and it went over the top with such a bang that it will undoubtedly lead the nation in per capita sales for the shortest month of the year.

CONTEST UNDECIDED

The Bomber Queen contest is in doubt. Tabulators are still striving to catch up with the great rush to buy bonds for favorite candidates. During the week, Gloria Flavin made tremendous gains and the contest now rests between Miss Flavin and Jimmie Rogers.

Winner of the contest may be known next week. It is planned to have the winner christen the bomber at appropriate ceremonies.

RALLY IS SUCCESS

Last Monday's parade and public rally at the entrance to the golf course boosted the total by $10,500. In the morning there was a parade down Palm Canyon drive with the Camp Haan band leading the march and a light tank and a heavy tank drawing the most interest.

The tanks came from the desert training posts. There were also jeeps and trucks and Trav Rogers' stage coach which had been boosting the event all week. On the coach were PFC William Watson, Jr., and Pvt. Herman Nelson from Torrey General Hospital.

SELL MANY BONDS

In the afternoon a platform was erected on a truck on West Amado road, a band stand set up and Olin Price, representative of the war bond division of the treasury department, attached to the Los Angeles office, took over at the loud speaker.

From the platform Cpl. Riser, Cpl. Crawley and Pvt. Gardino, (Continued on page Seven)

Henderson Red Cross Official

Fred Ingram, treasurer of the Palm Springs branch of the American Red Cross for four years, resigned Wednesday due to pressure of increased duties at the Bank of America where he was recently promoted to manager.

Charles Henderson was elected to succeed him as treasurer at a meeting of the executive board of the Red Cross branch, held in the Fiesta House at the Desert Inn.

Mr. Ingram will remain as a member of the executive board of the Red Cross branch, however, and will continue to take an active part in the conduct of the branch.

Monday More Than A National Holiday For F. W. Watsons

Washington's Birthday was a bigger holiday for Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Watson of the Indianola, 234 North Palm Canyon drive, than for the rest of the Villagers.

For it was on February 22, 1893, that they were married.

Because of Mr. Watson's illness, the observation was a quiet one.

Civilian Defense

News of the Activities of
The Palm Springs Council

The method of alleviating the great rush at markets, adopted by the Palm Springs Civilian Defense council of which Earl E. Gibbs is director, will soon be copied by many other cities in the nation.

Winter residents have been spreading the word to their home towns, describing the number method put into effect here by Mr. Gibbs to provide for orderly marketing and the same has so spread, that other cities are putting the plan into effect.

Tuesday this week a photographer for the World Wide photos was in the Village and took pictures of the system and of Mr. Gibbs and his aides. These will be published soon in many of the larger newspapers of the country.

Supervisors Deny Wertheimer Claim To Recover $800

On the recommendation of County Counsel Earl Redwine, the board of supervisors Tuesday rejected the claim of Al Wertheimer, former proprietor and operator of The Dunes, a night club near Palm Springs, for $800 repayment by the county.

Wertheimer was convicted in justice court of Riverside township on two counts of violation of the county gambling ordinance and was fined $400 on each count by Judge Roy A. Moore.

TELLS CASE HISTORY

He was arrested January 21, 1941, according to his claim, and tried and convicted March 21. He was committed to the Riverside county jail on September 26 to serve sentence.

Wertheimer alleged that at the time he entered the jail, he had $1000 which was deposited with the jailer.

By a writ out of Judge Moore's court, September 27, the sum of $800 of the $1000 was levied to pay the fine, which he claims was not voluntarily paid.

On November 17, 1942, in the case of others convicted on a similar charge, the supreme court of California held that the Riverside county gambling ordinance was unconstitutional. By reason of the ruling of the higher court Wertheimer asks the return of the $800 as money paid on conviction under the unconstitutional ordinance.

Former Villager Now in Montana on War Production Job

George Henderson, former resident of Palm Springs and employed at the Dill Lumber company and at Henry Faure's Texaco station here from 1935 to 1939, offers more proof that once a Villager, always a Villager.

From Columbus, Montana, a small town that is now a war-bomb city, Henderson writes to subscribe for The Desert Sun. He says he wants to keep in touch with Palm Springs, where he lived for four years.

He is with the Cahill-Mooney Construction company engaged in metal production.

He writes that it had been 40 degrees below zero there, "a little different than the Palm Springs climate."

Mrs. R. E. Breckenridge and lovely daughters, Barbara, and Nancy from Lima, Ohio, are enjoying the sunshine and sports activities at The Desert Inn.

THE KILLDEER Oxyechus vociferus

The word "Plover" usually makes us think of desolate seashores and marshes, of the thunder of the surf chasing small scurrying shorebirds back and forth along the sandy beach; and most of the plovers are birds of the sea.

But there is one, as full-fledged a plover as any other bird, that lives away from the sea—even lives on the desert. This is the Killdeer, or Killdeer, which gets its name from its cry. And though the bird be hundreds of miles away from the ocean, there is something in its cry as it wails away down the wind that brings the ocean close; something that suggests wild free wanderings in far places. This cry can sound romantic, even though you hear it above the sound of tin cans clattering from a truck into the city dump!

ARE COMING NOW

The Killdeer are coming to the desert now; I have heard them twice at the dump, around which are puddles and sandy stretches that closely simulate the seabeach. We can go there at any time from now on, and see and hear this striking bird.

Last season there was a pair nesting, and rearing a family of four at this same place, and they may do it again this year. In fact, we can be sure that at least one pair will nest there, but being sure of finding the eggs, or the young, is indeed a different matter. The grown-ups are very obvious—even too obvious, if you are trying to creep up on some other birds—but they know how to hide their treasures. A great many birds are very brave, and will remain on their nests until the searcher comes very near, but the Killdeer is much too smart for that. She knows that her eggs are almost impossible to see, and at the first sign of an alarm, she slips away from the nest, runs a few yards quietly, then sets up a tremendous shrieking to divert your attention. And it works. I have found localities that were perfect as Killdeer nesting places, and have seen the adults as they screamed and swore at me, and have been unable to find the nest.

NEST IS SIMPLE

There isn't very much to the nest itself; often it is nothing more than a shallow depression on the ground. Sometimes it is loosely lined with pieces of weeds, and I have found a few into which were piled many pebbles—a hard bed! There are almost always four eggs, and they are ingeniously placed with the little ends together, pointing down at an angle of perhaps forty degrees. If it were not for this method of placement, the small mother would have a much harder time trying to cover all four of them.

The eggs are spotted and mottled, exactly the color of the ground, and the spots seem to be pebbles. I have had nests with eggs pointed out to me at a distance of ten feet and still I could not see them! The disguise of these eggs is one of the finest jobs of camouflage to be found in nature.

DOUBLE PRECAUTION

But Mrs. Killdeer doesn't rely entirely on the eggs' ability to hide—she tries to wile away the observer. If you stay near the nest too long, her urge to incubate those precious eggs becomes almost too strong, and she will go almost to any length to lure you away. She runs or flies close to you and apparently becomes very ill: with tail fanned out, wings half opened, she trembles violently and utters a small rolling trill that is hardly even a respectable ghost of her usual screams. Though you have seen this performance a hundred times, you may be fooled again; she seems so helpless you have a great desire to pick her up and see if you can be of any assistance. As you reach toward her, she manages to flop a little way ahead of you, and as you walk after her her flopping keeps up. But the further away the two of you go from the nest, the more chipper she becomes, and when she concludes that you are far enough away, she wheels away triumphantly, with her old strength back in both voice and wing. And you stand there, feeling very foolish.

When the babies arrive, she does the same thing; but she manages somehow to warn her infants before she leaves, and they all crouch wherever they may be. They are active little things most of the time, running here and there on their long legs like a flock of chicks, but when Mama warns them, they stop. And they are even harder to find than the eggs they came out of; an old saying has it that a young Killdeer can hide under a broomstraw! If you refuse to follow the parents away, they fly above you, alarming the whole neighborhood with their screams. "Kill-dee! Kill-dee! Kill-dee!" This nervousness keeps up even after the little birds have grown up and left home; for several weeks after that great event, the old birds begin their strident screams at the slightest warning. And I have an idea that the young ones, too, become infected by this hysteria, and join the old folks in the protest chorus!

Speeding Drivers Will Lose Ration Books, OPA Warns

Things are going to be tough for motorists who habitually exceed 35 miles an hour.

Los Angeles OPA headquarters laid down a schedule of ration book suspensions this week and empowered local rationing boards to revoke ration cards of speeders.

The revocation schedule calls for suspension of ration cards for initial offenses, as follows:

- Between 36 and 40 miles—10 days.
- Between 40 and 50 miles—30 days.
- Between 51 and 69—60 days.
- Over 70 miles per—90 days.

Then if the motorist hasn't learned his lesson and is again caught speeding, he really will be grounded for the schedule of revocation periods for second offenders is:

- 36 to 40 miles—15 days.
- 41 to 50 Miles—60 days.
- 51 to 60 miles—180 days.
- Over 70 miles—one year.

Minimum suspension for subsequent offenses is six months.

Local boards were also empowered to take action against motorists recently cited for abuse of rationing book privileges. A reduction in amount of motor fuel asked when cited motorists apply for renewals or, in extreme cases, revocation, will be the program.

B and C book holders were also warned that Sunday, Feb. 28 is the deadline for tire inspection. A book holders must have their tires inspected before March 31.

Family of Oakland City Manager Spend Few Days in Village

Mrs. Charles Schwabenberg and daughter, Marion, of Oakland, left Thursday evening for their home in the bay area after a week spent in Palm Springs.

Mrs. Schwabenberg is the wife of the city manager of Oakland and came south with him when he attended the city manager's session in Los Angeles.

She came on the Village with Mrs. Louise McCarn, acting city manager of Palm Springs, and Ray Sorum, director of public works, who attended the Los Angeles sessions.

caused words of wrath to rise hot from the heart of many a duck-hunter whose prey has been frightened away, out of gun-range. But aside from this, the Killdeer has a clean slate; it doesn't eat grain and fruit, it doesn't kill other birds, and it does eat hordes of insects. And aside from that, it is a 'picturesque creature. Add to this the fact that it is not edible, and it becomes evident that there is not the slightest reason to kill the Killdeer. In fact, it is specifically against the state and federal game laws to do so, ever.

You will know the Killdeer without any trouble when you see it; brown back, white breast. Around the under side of its neck is a double band of black, with white between. And when it flies you will see a patch of bright cinnamon at the base of the tail. If these field-marks are not enough, let the bird himself tell you who he is—he's not ashamed of it! "Kill-dee!", he shouts, for all the world to hear; "Kill-dee! Dee,dee,dee!"

Ceremonies Mark Dedication of Chapel at Torney

The new Chapel at Torney General Hospital was dedicated last Sunday morning with appropriate exercises and an impressive program starting at 10:30 o'clock.

The chapel was filled to overflowing for the occasion.

Following the opening hymn, Col. Frank Hayes delivered the invocation. The opening prayer was said by the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth of the Episcopal church and the dedication service was read by Chaplain Richard W. Elliott.

Principal speakers were Rabbi Samuel H. Gordon of Indio and Father C. Norman Raley of the Catholic church. The sermon was by Chaplain Hayes.

Chaplain Julius J. Babst of the Ninth Service Command, from Fort Douglas, Utah, spoke briefly. Chaplain Babst served in the first World War and has four medals, two presented by the French government and two by congress. He is the most decorated chaplain in the army at present.

Musical numbers were presented by Sgt. Russell H. Genich and Nelson McIninch, vocal solos, and the chapel choir.

INTEREST IS HIGH

Active interest in the varied program of the Red Cross is manifested in Palm Springs by the hundreds of women who participate. Knitting, sewing, all of the production activities, center in the Red Cross headquarters in the Desert Inn grounds, at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz Drive.

Gray ladies, busy with helping the patients at Torney General hospital, are one of the newer groups, but are very active. The motor corps, canteen corps, staff assistants, home service, first aid, junior Red Cross—all have an important part in the Red Cross program.

MONEY IS NEEDED

In addition to the hours of work given by these groups, the Red Cross needs money. Money to give service to the armed forces; money for domestic disaster relief, of which the 14-month period ending February 28 showed the greatest number of disasters of any year since the organization of this Red Cross department; money to provide food and medicine for prisoners of war; money for civilian war relief; for home service which helps the families of men in service in all kinds of emergencies; for foreign war relief, and money to make possible the wide-spread work activities in the local chapters.

Services to the armed forces include hospital and convalescent service; home service for the able-bodied and hospitalized men and their families; blood plasma for the army and navy; emergency supplies for the armed forces and chapter produced supplies such as surgical dressings; assistance to the disabled men and their families of this and past wars; and assistance to U. S. prisoners of war. For the men overseas, in addition to the above services, special welfare and recreational activities are provided.

ASKED TO SHARE

For these things, part and parcel of the American way of living, the residents and guests of Palm Springs are asked to share in the responsibility and privilege of giving. The month of March has been designated as "Red Cross Month." The collection of funds starts Monday, March 1.

Palm Springs surely won't need 31 days to raise $10,200.

Power Company to Take to Air With Historical Story

In its program to advertise the outstanding features of the different territories that it serves, the California Electric Power Company will present a half-hour of music and drama glorifying the romance and history of the Hemet-San Jacinto Valley over the Radio Station KPRO, Thursday night, March 4, at 8:30 o'clock in a half hour program, J. R. Gabbert, Advertising Manager of the Company, announced today in an advertisement in this newspaper.

"This program will feature the passing of the Captain Juan de Anza expedition through the Valley in 1774-75," said Mr. Gabbert. "This feature will have dialogue taken from the diaries of the priests who made these trips. It will also tell the story of the mounding of the Estudillo Homestead, will produce passages from the Romona Pageant, closing with the modern story of the development of towns, orchards and other industries that came with irrigation and water development."

Famous Aviatix To Speak Before Club Women Mar. 1

BY MARTHA FORWARD

It is fortunate for Palm Springs that the shaping of events makes it possible for Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, whose interesting and informative talks are in popular demand the country over, will speak before the Palm Springs Woman's Club on Monday, March 1, at 2:30 o'clock, at the clubhouse, 314 South Cahuilla Road.

Mrs. O'Donnell, one of the outstanding aviators of the country for the past fifteen years, has participated in, and won, several of the cross-country Bendix races. She and her husband, J. Lloyd O'Donnell, established an army flying school in California, which has trained several thousand young army pilots.

TRAINING PILOTS

At the present time, Mrs. O'Donnell is in Texas training women ferry pilots, who will fly the big bombers to their destination, and release some of the present men ferry pilots for active combat duty.

All visitors, interested in hearing this popular speaker, will be welcomed, and are invited to have tea with the club members, which will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Claude Gottbehuet has arranged for Pvt. James O'Toole, a patient at Torney General Hospital, to sing a group of songs during the program. Pvt. O'Toole possesses a tenor voice of rare charm and quality. Mrs. M. A. Selinger, wife of Lt. Col. Selinger will be his accompanist.

ON TEA COMMITTEE

Mrs. William A. Lippman, chairman of the tea committee, will be assisted by Miss Muriel Fulton, Mrs. John Kline, Miss Jennie E. Lawson, Mrs. Annie Plymire, Miss Era Franklin, Mrs. E. M. Barton and Mrs. Noble Banks.

The regular price of admission for guests and visitors is $1.10.

Palm Springs Army Officer, Banning Girl to Wed Soon

Little cards, attached to white ribbon streamers tied to bouquets of pink and white sweet peas, announced to the guests at a party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. F. Roberge at her home in Banning, that her very attractive niece, Miss Dorothy Schmid, is to become the bride of Lieut. Stanley McKinley of Palm Springs. "Stanley" was printed on one card and "Dorothy" on the other.

The dainty little bouquets were presented to the guests as they entered the home by Mister Wilfrid Roberge, handsome little son of the hostess.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED

After best wishes had been extended and the excitement died down, dessert was served from an artistically decorated tea table. Pink flowering peach blossoms and white tapers were used on the table and almond blossoms about the living room.

Mrs. Everett Earl served the ices which were pink, molded heart shape. These were served with Angel Food cake iced in white.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with the prize for high score going to Mrs. Robert Howie of Riverside.

Privileged to hear the announcement were a group of Miss Schmid's younger friends.

FROM MINNESOTA

The winsome bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmid of Avon, Minnesota, and came here five years ago to make her home. She is now employed as assistant at the office of Dr. C. E. McClean. During her residence she has made many friends here who will be interested in the announcement of her engagement.

The fortunate young man is stationed at the Torney Hospital in Palm Springs. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is a landscape architect. He has been in the army for the past two years.

Young People of Two Churches to Rally at Dinner

Young people of the Community Church will be hosts at a dinner this coming Sunday evening at 6 o'clock to the young people of the Episcopal church.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Payne will lead in the music.
After the meeting the group will see the motion picture "The Man at the Gate" at the church.

Community Circle Will Meet Tuesday

Community Circle of the Community Church will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to continue their sewing for the church, it was announced today.

Mrs. H. G. Carnell entertained at dinner at The Desert Inn for Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Clendenen and Henry Lockwood.

Timely Film Will Be Shown Sunday At Local Church

Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of Community Church said that the motion picture, "The Man at the Gate," to be shown at the evening service Sunday, is the most important shown at the church during the entire season.
"It is a story of tragic martyrdom, the maelstrom of war, the bitter agony that tears a mother's heart to shreds and makes her cry 'Where is God?'" said Dr. Macartney. "It is a story of faith restored and a powerful and timely lesson to those who have let their faith be shaken."
"Military men and their families are especially invited."

New Adult Bible Class Attracting Large Membership

The Young Adult Bible Class, under the leadership of William H. Veith, Indian agent here, at the Community Church is rapidly growing, Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor, said today.
Members are much enjoying the fellowship the new class affords. Those between 20 and 40 years of age are eligible, and invited to join.
The class meets each Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the Manse of the Community church.

Ministers from many surrounding churches were present and preached.

Mrs. Williamson Leaves for Home In Bay City Area

Madame McCune Williamson, retired vocal specialist and teacher for many operatic stars, left for her home in the San Francisco bay area Monday after a stay here of several weeks. She will join her husband there, Judge Judson Osborn, now engaged in rehabilitation work for men at San Quentin state prison.
She was accompanied north by her daughter, Virginia Lee Williamson (Mrs. Judson Osborn, Jr.) noted singer. Miss Williamson will return to Palm Springs this week-end.

First Movies for Torney Patients Scheduled in New Building March 2

Opening of the Recreation Building at Torney General Hospital for patient movies is scheduled for Tuesday night, March 2, according to Miss Ruth E. Thomas, Red Cross Field Director. Appearing for the opening ceremonies will be representatives of the Red Cross and the Hospital, including Captain G. W. Daily, Special Service officer. Music will be furnished by the hospital orchestra.

It is hoped that the first movie in the new building will be Walt Disney's new South American feature, "Saludos Amigos," a Donald Duck cartoon, "Tire Trouble," and a March of Time subject, "Private Smith, U. S. A."

TO BE HERE LATER

As a special treat, Florence Gill, who is the voice of "Clara Cluck" in the Disney picture; Marion Darlington, bird whistler, and Peggy Duncan, accompanist, were to have made personal appearances; however, due to a conflicting engagement they will be unable to come until the following Tuesday.

Since the movies are furnished by the Red Cross through special arrangements with the producers, they are for hospital patients only. Two shows will be scheduled each week.

WILL SPEED PROGRAM

The whole recreation program of Red Cross for patients will take on new impetus with the use of the building. A tentative program now includes the regular work shop and game program every afternoon, with activities carried on both in the building and out-of-doors. A "sing" every Monday at 7:00 p. m. will be held under direction of Chaplain Frank Hayes. Sports events of a tournament nature will be held Wednesday afternoons and on Saturday nights there will be some variety of a party or patient show. On Thursday nights Special Service will conduct a feature show in the building.

Directing the Red Cross recreational activities under the supervision of Ruth E. Thomas are Estelle Booth and Ruth F. Hurd, who will have volunteer assistance from the Hospital and Recreation Corps trainees and the Gray Ladies of Palm Springs.

High Executives Of GMC Stop Over On Way to Desert

Palm Springs had important visitors during the week when a group of executives from the General Motors Corporation stopped at the Desert Inn en route to India where they will observe the various GMC war products in action in desert maneuvers.
Those here were M. E. Coyle, vice-president and director of General Motors Corporation and general manager of Chevrolet Motor Division; R. K. Evans, vice-president of General Motors Corporation in charge of Diesel Engine Production; M. D. Douglas, manager of the Military Parts and Accessories of Chevrolet Motor Division; J. M. Crawford, chief engineer of Chevrolet Motor Division; D. S. Harder, chief of the Tank Section of Fisher Body Division; W. J. Davidson, director of engineering service of General Motors War Products; and C. J. French, director of War Production Information Department of Chevrolet Motors.

General Motors being one of the largest producers of war products in the country today will have many products of various divisions of the corporation in action in these maneuvers. Each corporation division will have expert technical engineers and production men in attendance for consultation with the officers in charge of these maneuvers.
The executives made daily trips to the maneuvers and got into the thick of things to gain first-hand knowledge of the performance of their products.

Noted Missouri Equestrienne Is Here for Vacation

Prominent guests from Missouri who are enjoying a vacation at The Desert Inn at Palm Springs are Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Combs. They have just returned from a stay in Guaymas, Mexico.
Mrs. Combs is the well known Loula Long of equestrian fame. Her stables of fine horses are at their Longview Farm at Lees Summit, Missouri. Mrs. Combs has exhibited her fine horses at shows in London and throughout this country, having been in California shows many times.

At Sunday dinner at The Desert Inn Mrs. J. A. Swallow of Seattle entertained Mrs. E. B. Kluckhohn and Miss Hazel Morgan, also of Seattle.

More Sugar Next Time But it Will Be Less Per Week

Important changes in sugar rationing were announced this week by Paul d'Orr, Southern California rationing chief, Tuesday.

Coupon No. 12, which becomes valid March 16, will be good for five pounds—but that ration must be stretched out for two and one-half months instead of the usual six weeks. Instead of three pounds for six weeks, there will be five pounds for 11 weeks, a slight reduction in the ration.
Sugar coupon No. 12 will be valid from March 16 to May 31. Coupon 11, now in effect, will be good for three pounds through March 15.

Display of Wasps Is Latest Arranged At Desert Museum

To many people mention of the word "wasp" conjures up visions of that ill-fated picnic which was thrown into wild confusion by the dive-bomber tactics of the tiny black insects under whose tree-branch nest the holidayers had been inordinately enough to spread their repast.

Such folks owe it to themselves to visit the Desert Museum, in the east wing of the Wellwood Murray Memorial Library, for here they will find a wide variety of specimens of their erstwhile "enemy", neatly indexed and safely under glass. And having condescended to inspect him, they will doubtless be amazed at the delicacy and real beauty to be discovered in this creature whom they had heretofore regarded merely as an ugly little nuisance.

The wasps range from thumb-nail size down to infinitesimally fine mites no more than an eighth of an inch long—indeed, so tiny are some of these that Director Sam D. Hinton has been obliged to make sketches of them with the aid of a microscope, in order that the spectator may fully appreciate their delicacy of form and construction. And far from being dismal and black, some of the insects show a sheen of vari-hued iridescence comparable in beauty to the gaudiest butterfly.

Also causing much comment from Museum visitors is the series of black and white photographs of one of the desert's most harmless and ubiquitous inhabitants—the energetic lizard, as well as a new series of color transparencies of desert wild-flowers which may currently be viewed on the glass screen of the Museum's automatic projector.

Veteran of Thirty Years in Service Is Now in Village

Nine service stripes and several medals are proudly displayed by Master Sgt. Oliver Mason, colored, who is in Palm Springs on sick leave after strenuous campaigning in Australia and New Guinea.

Sgt. Oliver, who is 54, has a record of 30 years and six months in the army. He served in the first World War and in the Mexican border campaign.
Besides medals for expert marksmanship both with rifle and pistol, he also has medals from the 9th and 10th cavalry and a Victory Medal awarded in the first world war.

Among guests at The Desert Inn are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hinshaw of Beverly Hills.

How to get off to a good start with the Point Ration System—BE NUTRITION-WISE

The new point ration system brings to every housewife in America the greatest responsibility and opportunity in this war to date.

Now more than ever you will need to consider every food purchase you make, from the standpoint of its food value—because it means health value to your family. Helpful wartime suggestions and counsel on ration cooking from your gas company's Home Service Department will be published from time to time in advertisements such as this one.

Rule No. 1 to the Nutrition-Wise is—don't use a processed food when there is a fresh food available. Fresh foods are particularly high in vitamin content, especially those direct from your own victory garden.

It is more important than ever now to plan menus in advance or you are apt to run out of ration coupons before the month is up. As you make out your shopping list, you can jot down individual and total point values of the rationed foods. This will give you a double-check list, and will save you marketing minutes.

Your best bargains in rationed foods will be those with the highest nutritive value for each point you have to pay.

Remember to use the highest point coupon possible in making your purchases. This will leave you the right "change" in smaller stamps for lower point purchases later on.

THIS IS THE FIRST OF A SERIES of advertisements dealing with the vital subject of Food in Wartime. Authentic nutritional information and helpful suggestions for cooking under wartime Rationing conditions are presented under the direction of our Home Service Department.

"THE MAN AT THE GATE"

Moving Picture at the Community Church Sunday Night, 7:30

The film, "The Man at the Gate" is a thrilling picture which all people of every class ought to see. It stirs the heart with its humaneness; it answers life's deep questionings concerning the meaning of trouble, disaster and war. It presents a mighty drama of the ruthless power of the sea, but also of the wisdom and love of God which is mightier than all the storms that blow.

A. W. S. Observers, We Salute You!

You receive no pay, you do not wear a uniform, there is no glamour in the job; yet you are performing a service so necessary that the Army has said it is the most important civilian defense activity.

What happened at Pearl Harbor could happen to Southern California, but for the constant vigilance, 24 hours a day, of the A. W. S. observers. Day and night, winter and summer, in all kinds of weather, these patriotic citizens are on the job, reporting all aircraft that fly over Palm Springs. Should an enemy plane approach, our fighting planes stationed from the Mexican border to the coast would be ready to meet it before it could reach the vital war plants in the coastal area; the anti-aircraft guns would be ready to give the enemy a warm reception.

At present some observers are working two and even three shifts a day, taking valuable time away from other necessary work. If a sufficient number of additional observers are obtained, it will not be necessary for any observer to be on duty more than three hours a week. High School students are welcome to help.

Observers are especially needed to serve between the hours of midnight and 9 a. m. Men are wanted for these shifts.

Please communicate with Mrs. Virginia Farrell chief observer, The Racquet Club. Telephone 2291.

Too long have we waited to express our appreciation. You are doing a very necessary and patriotic job, tedious as it may be. We realize that you, the eyes of the air force, are doing important work for the protection of your community and the nation. May you soon have enough additional workers that the burden on anyone of you will not be excessive. We, the undersigned business people and other citizens of Palm Springs, are expressing the sentiments of the entire community when we say "Thank You."

Eyes Aloft

This week, February 21-27, Southern California does honor to the members of the Aircraft Warning Service Ground Observation Corps, that group of faithful workers, who without uniforms or fanfare, have watched the skies 24 hours a day for over a year, searching for enemy planes to make certain none fly over their homes to drop their load of destructive bombs.

This vital work of protection is operated by the United States Army as a safeguard against enemy attack and requires thousands of volunteers, both men and women. So vital is the work that the Army recognizes it as the most important civilian activity.

A long list of faithful observers is printed elsewhere in this issue. But the need is still great for volunteers. It is a vital task, an important one. Volunteer now!

server. When the post was moved to its present location, Culver Nichols became chief observer and he held that post for a year. A short time ago he resigned to become area supervisor for the ground observation post and Mrs. Charles Farrell, present chief observer for the Palm Springs post, was appointed.

Although the post was organized by the army air force, it has always had the full co-operation of the city and city officials who contributed much in a material way to its success.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION

Mr. Nichols and Mrs. Farrell also expressed appreciation for the great aid rendered the post by Mrs. Julia Carnell who provided the site for the post and to all of the numerous merchants who donated articles for the material comfort of the observers and to the laborers who donated labor.

But the greatest thanks, they said, is due the volunteer workers who have faithfully kept their eyes on the skies to thwart any possible Japanese sneak attack on the mainland.

LICENSE TABS MAY BE LONG TIME ARRIVING

Do not be alarmed if your 1943 vehicle license tabs and registration cards do not arrive promptly. The admonition given to motorists of California, today, by the Department of Motor Vehicles coupled with a special request that the motorists refrain from writing letters about their tabs and cards.

Director Gordon H. Garland estimated that close to a million applications were received in Sacramento alone by mail during the last ten days of the renewal season which ended February 4. Much of this mail, he said, has not yet even been opened and cannot be sorted and sent to the right bureau for processing for several weeks. Moreover the manufacturer of the tabs probably will not have delivered all of them until close to the end of March.

For these reasons, Garland said, it probably will not be possible to complete delivery of tabs and registration cards to the motorists until well into May with the limited staff the department has to process the applications.

"We ask the public to bear with us and refrain from writing letters about their tabs and certificates at this time," Garland said. "We do not have the help to answer these letters and they will only clutter up our files. The motorists are asked to wait until they are absolutely certain that something has happened to their applications before making inquiries about them."

Our hearts go out to the slaves of Hollywood now cut to $25,000 net a year. Those with private swimming pools may, of course, take in one another's washing.

It was a party at which a famous alienist was a guest. "Tell us, doctor," said another guest, "how do you really tell whether a man is insane?" "Oh," he replied, "we just ask him a few simple questions." "What kind of questions?" pressed the heckler. "Let's hear a sample." "Well, sometimes we ask him a simple historical question," replied the alienist. "For example: Captain Cook made three voyages around the world, and died on one of them. Which one was it?" "Oh, come now, doctor," puffed the heckler. "After all, we don't all of us remember our history."

What's In A Name?

By Frances Lee Barton

IT is often unnecessary to give a detailed description of something particularly delicious. Take the case of Brown Velvet Frosting. The title of the recipe is self-explanatory. By merely saying the name aloud you visualize a rich, velvety frosting that will tend to make any cake more appealing and appetizing. However, do not be convinced by your sense of hearing alone. Employ your sense of taste and actually enjoy the frosting.

Brown Velvet Frosting
1 package semi-sweet chocolate chips; 1/2 cup evaporated milk.
Combine ingredients in small saucepan and cook slowly until blended. Bring to a boil and boil gently 5 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Cool, stirring occasionally. Makes enough frosting to cover tops of 2-8 inch layers or top of 8x8x2-inch cake (generously).

Note: 1 package semi-sweet chocolate may be substituted for chocolate chips in above recipe. Decrease cooking time to 3 minutes, or until thickened.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

SPEND LESS. SAVE MORE. WHY?

BUT

SO WE MUST

Idea of March

For Federal income taxpayers, the Idea of March are just around the corner—and warning comes from the Internal Revenue Bureau that hundreds of thousands of California taxpayers face the possibility of stiff penalties for failure to get their returns in on time, due to a mistaken belief that Congress may come to their relief before the fatal day.

While the deadline for filing returns is March 15, the Collector of Internal Revenue for this district declares that early returns in California are far below normal and that an eleven-hour tax jam is inevitable, if the majority of taxpayers try to crowd in during the final days. In the national capital, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau and other government leaders have joined in warning taxpayers that the March 15 installment on 1942 incomes must be paid regardless of any action Congress may take on pay-as-you-go legislation.

There is a natural disposition on the part of all mankind to postpone unpleasant duties, but death and taxes wait for none of us. If you haven't filed that income tax return yet, it's time to get busy and take care of it. Uncle Sam is in a war to the death this year; he needs our tax dollars to wage that war—and he won't take "no" for an answer. As Secretary Morgenthau aptly said, "the longer you wait, the longer you will have to wait in line." It's time to ante up for Uncle Sam!

Commander Praises Work Aircraft Warning Service

The celebration of Aircraft Warning Service week in Southern California, February 20 to 27 inclusive, indicates that the people of the Southland recognize and appreciate the contribution made by the thousands of civilian volunteers to their safety and the safety of our nation.

It is no military secret that there are very important target areas in Southern California, particularly targets for invading aircraft. The defense of these target areas is vital not only to the over-all war effort but is particularly important to the people who live and work South of the Tehachapi. An Aircraft Warning Service is indispensable to the adequate defense of any region against air attack under the present plan of defense. Fighter aircraft on the ground, ready to take to the air on an instant's notice, constitute the most economical use of such fighter aircraft. However, these aircraft must receive adequate warning of the approach of the enemy in order to be directed toward him and hence successfully fight enemy air raiders.

The Aircraft Warning Service also provides the necessary warning to passive defense agencies under civilian defense so that they may be mobilized and ready for action before the enemy strikes should he be successful in avoiding or defeating our fighter aircraft. It also provides early warning to the anti-aircraft artillery, permitting more efficient operation than would be possible without this early warning.

In the landward areas of the Pacific Coast the Aircraft Warning Service is dependent wholly upon civilian volunteers serving as ground observers and as workers in the information and filter centers. These volunteers have done a noble job since December 7, 1941, and deserve the highest recognition the community is able to give them. I look upon them as part of my Army even though they are not in uniform and not subject to military law. They have been loyal, devoted and dependable.

I am sure that through the publicity given the work of the volunteers of the Aircraft Warning Service during this week in Southern California, more of its citizens will understand how dependent they are upon the patriotism of their fellow citizens in the Aircraft Warning Service.

W. E. KEPNER,
Brigadier General, U. S. A.
Commanding General Fourth Fighter Command.

"I Rise to Remark"

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

Madame Chiang Kai-Shek spoke to the Houses of Congress; eloquently and with a reaction from the members which is reported to have exceeded that given any other woman visitor in the history of the body, and most men. She said, as you have already read, that the thought of Hitler as the No. 1 enemy was false; that Japan was No. 1, a sentiment which interests those of us from the West Coast. The House applauded, loudly and long, and with cheers. It was a startling demonstration.

Perhaps it was a happy coincidence that the foremost woman of China should be a visitor here right now. The Chinese do things, as we would say, backwards. They read from right to left, for example. I am quite sure that some one in the O. P. A. must have been a student of Chinese methods. That administrative branch of government can beat the Chinese doing things backwards.

I continue to use milk for my example. Don't think I am any more interested in milk than I am in any other commodity the people need for food, or any other product of California. Everyone understands milk. Whether you think it originates in a bottle, or in a can, or in a cow, or whether you go to the grocery store with a coat over your pajamas, or stick your hand cautiously out of the door, with the thermometer ten above, (California papers please copy) or take it from the cow in the barn by the light of a lantern, still we all know milk and when something happens to milk, begin to appreciate what is happening to other foods.

It is chickens, where the O.P.A. price for meats is causing cancellations of orders for thousands of chickens in California hatcheries. Do you know any way to get chicken on the table without raising chickens? Would you raise them if the O.P.A. set a price on your product less than the cost of production, with no ceilings on the things you have to buy in the process of production?

It is beans; it is meat; it is one food item after the other—a price ceiling on the consumers' price, to "prevent inflation" but no ceiling on the prices paid to produce the product.

Three more herds went to the butcher last week in Los Angeles; about a thousand cows. It takes three to four years to bring a cow from calf to production. Why the destruction of herds? Because about two weeks ago the OPA received, direct from the White House, a directive (we are being run I think by "directives" more than by laws) that no essential food could have the retail price raised. What about the costs of production? No ceilings!

We have been keeping accurate records in California for more than 7 years of the costs of milk production and distribution. The milk laws of the state made this necessary. The cost of milk production in the Los Angeles area is about $1.18 (this is butterfat, per hundred pounds). With the hay ceiling just set, it may come down, perhaps as low as $1.08. So the OPA sets a ceiling of 97 1/2c. You figure it out; could you take a loss each month on every cow? For how long? That simple figure means $250,000 every month in Los Angeles county. Your cow is now a steak; the bottle will not be on the doorstep much longer.

I abhor inflation. But I am not yet ready to concede that the "Little Steel Formula" must rule this country. The babies of working men need milk; the wives of farmers and working men and business men must hunt through the stores for essential foodstuffs that will be increasingly scarce. It has been tragedy to me that for almost a decade the greatest agricultural country in the world, a country founded by farmers and developed by farmers, should have had to import foodstuffs while we had restrictions on our own production; it will be the greatest tragedy of our history that in 1944 and more so in 1945, the people of this great agricultural country will go hungry because of present regulations.

NEW SELECTIVE SERVICE 4-H CLASS IS ESTABLISHED FOR 38-45 GROUP

A new selective service classification has been announced. It is 4-H and covers the 38 to 45 age group.

There are many more classifications than the 1-A and 3-A with which everyone is familiar, and a complete list is printed below for the information of Record readers:

1-A. Registrants available for general military service.

1-A-O. Registrants who are conscientious objectors available for noncombatant military service when found acceptable to the land or naval forces.

1-C. Registrants who have been inducted into, enlisted in or appointed to the armed forces.

2-A. Registrants who are necessary or essential in their civilian activity.

2-B. Registrants who are necessary or essential to the war-production program, excluding agriculture.

2-C. Necessary or essential men in agriculture.

3-A. Registrants with dependents, engaged in less essential industry or less essential agriculture.

3-B. Registrants with dependents, engaged in an activity necessary to the war-production program.

3-C. Registrants with dependents engaged in essential agriculture.

4-A. Registrants who before induction have become 45 years of age, since they registered.

4-B. Registrants who are deferred specifically by the law itself.

4-C. Registrants who are aliens not acceptable to the armed forces or who waived their rights to become citizens to avoid military service.

4-D. Registrants who are ministers of religion or divinity students.

4-E. Registrants who are conscientious objectors available only for service in civilian work of national importance.

4-F. Registrants who are mentally, morally or physically unacceptable to the armed forces.

4-H. Registrants who are 38 to 45 years of age. New class.

veterans of the war in the south Pacific, spoke briefly.

Mr. Price sold jeeps, trucks, guns and the cost of training pilots, and rides in the jeeps present. During the lulls the Camp Haan band played. So great was the rush to buy that the meeting got under way before the band had time to play the national anthem. Abe Goldberg remedied this. He bought a $1000 bond to have the band play the Star Spangled Banner.

RUSH FOR JEEP RIDES

Mr. Price said that for every 25 bond purchased, a ride in a jeep would be provided. Sam Reese bought $550 in bonds to provide rides for 22 youngsters. The rush was so great to be among the favored 22 that a long line of hundreds of kids immediately formed.

To avoid complications, officers from the Ferrying Command, who furnished the jeeps, said all would get a short ride.

One of the big features of the day was the great air show staged by pilots from the Ferrying Command.

Led by Major Rollen H. Anthis, commanding officer of the Palm Springs unit of the California group of the Ferrying Division, Air Transport Command, intrepid pilots shot across the skies in fighters, bombers and transports to show Palm Springs citizens the kind of aerial weapons which are being unleashed against the Axis.

PILOTS HAD FUN

And to reveal the caliber of pilots at the controls of the planes, Major Anthis, in accepting the appreciation of the War Bond committee for the air show, was able to say that:

"I'm glad the public enjoyed our demonstrations but regardless of how much the onlookers liked it, all the pilots doing it had more fun than the spectators."

THOSE WHO TOOK PART

Major Anthis, who was at the controls of the large transport plane, was assisted by the following crack flying officers:

Capt. Richard Davis, Capt. John Okenfus, Capt. Paul Murdy, Lt. Mel Walston, Lt. Guy Colby, Lt. Robert Erichsen, Lt. Fred Vinmont, Lt. Herald Williams, Lt. Paul McKenna, Lt. George Bush and Lt. Francis MacKenzie.

Long after the air show was concluded, Palm Springs residents were still talking in amazement about the skill of the pilots.

JEEPS ARE JAMMED

Meanwhile on the ground the dependable army jeeps were busy taking war bond buyers for short rides around the city.

At their "controls" were Sgts. Rennie B. Plunkett and Olin Furr.

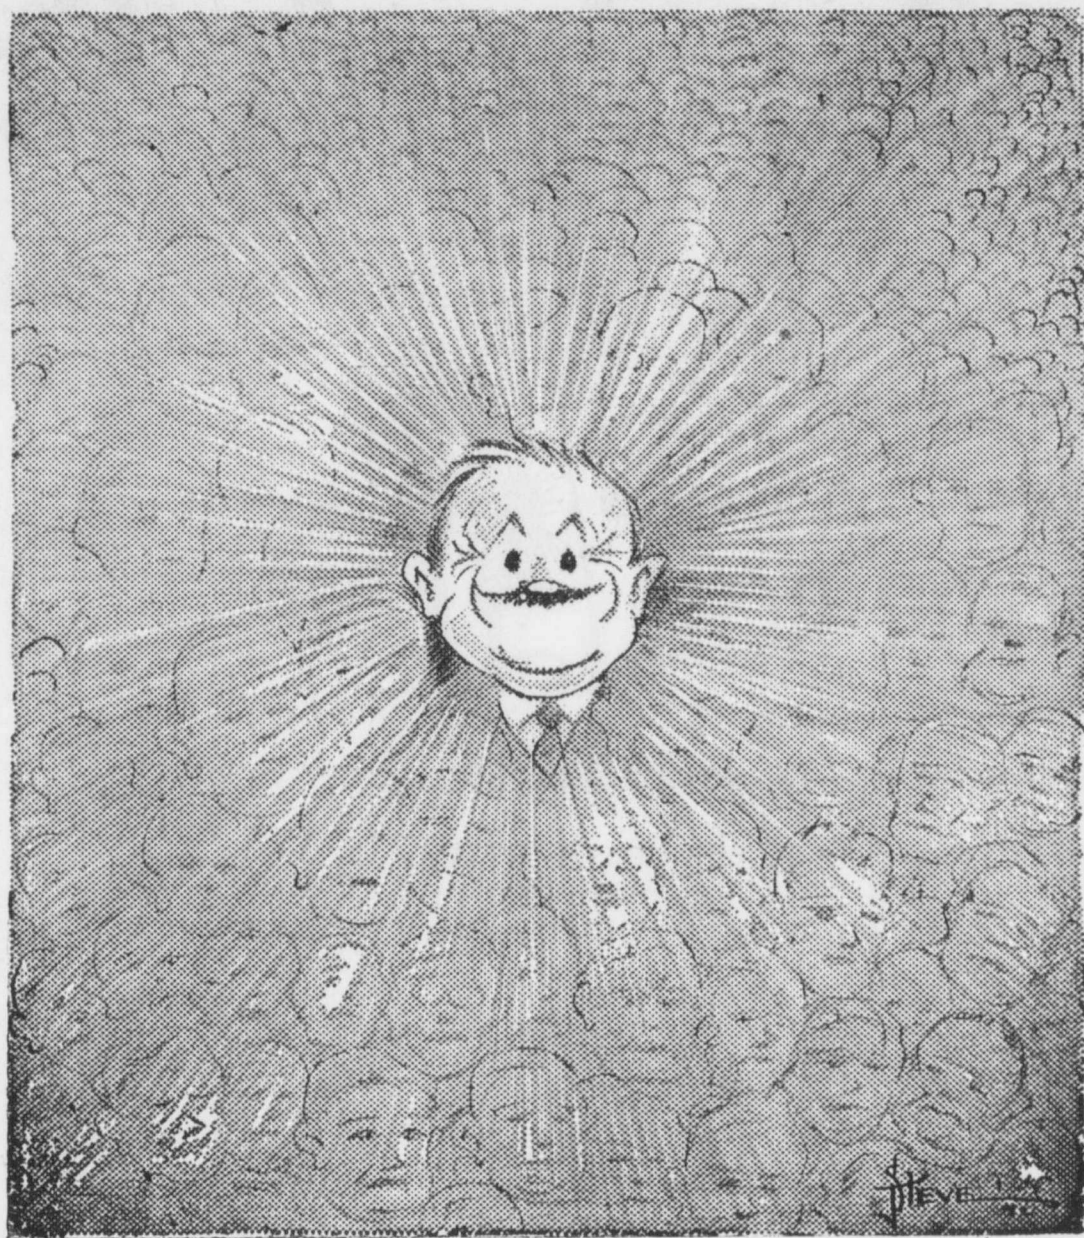

Because army regulations forbid any "stunting" with civilian passengers, Sgts. Plunkett and Furr did not give their riders any unusual thrills except for the genuine pleasure the dozens of bond purchasers got from their patriotic investment and the chance to ride in something their war money buys.

BULLOCKS TOPS LIST

The greatest single contribution for the week came Wednesday when Bullocks' Palm Springs store credited the Palm Springs bomber drive with $60,000 in bond purchases. Henry Weinberger, member of the Palm Springs War Bond committee, announced the purchase. He was instrumental in bringing it to the Village. Mr. Weinberger thus boosted the total of bond purchases he was instrumental in getting for the drive to almost $250,000 par value.

Harold Hicks, chairman of the drive, and his aides, John R. E. Chaffey and Charles Mathews, today were mapping plans for a

Palm Springs and Desert Sun Methods To Be Guide in Other Bomber Drives

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
War Savings Staff

February 18, 1943.

THE DESERT SUN,
PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA.

Gentlemen:—Our attention has been directed to the very splendid war bond promotion carried on in the February 12 edition of The Desert Sun. We have seen a number of bomber campaigns publicized in Southern California papers, but feel that you have done the best job on both the splendid distribution of news material throughout your paper and in the advertising which you have promoted.

We are now preparing a kit of material for the promotion of "Buy a Bomber" campaigns in other communities where such a program has not already been launched and would like very much to accompany it with a copy of this issue of your paper as an example of the type of promotion which we feel is most desirable. Would it be possible for you to supply the War Savings Staff with 200 of the February 12 edition for this purpose. Unfortunately we have no allowance for the purchase of promotional material of this kind but would be glad to defray the mailing costs if you will advise me what they are.

Please let me know the number of copies available as we will hold up sending out the other material to the community chairmen until I hear from you.

Cordially yours,
ELWOOD J. ROBINSON,
Chairman Sales Promotion Committee.

TORNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL EVENTS

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachments at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs
By Sergeant (T4) Russel H. Genich

Torney's new entertainment treat, the Sunday Symphony hour, featuring recorded symphonic music by the great masters and narrated by the famous violinist, Benar Barzelay, met with gratifying success as a goodly crowd was on hand to hear concert No. 1. Included in the program were the Beethoven Fifth Symphony, Toccata and Fugue by Bach, and Spanish Flamenco music featuring Maurice Eisenberg, the famous cellist. Mr. Barzelay's comments proved both interesting and enlightening, and indicated his close acquaintance with the masters. The records were from private collections of Sgt. Sylvan Frank and Cpl. William Willard. The Eisenberg records were Mr. Barzelay's own, never before heard in this country.

The program for next Sunday evening, February 28, includes the following selections: The Tchaikovsky Symphony No. 5, The Smetana Quartet No. 1 in E Minor, and Claire de Lune by Debussy.

Tech. Sgt. Maurice Melford departed from this station to attend Officers' Candidate School, Army Administrative Corps. Sgt. Melford was a member of the first cadre to arrive at Torney. He is spending a delay en route in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mrs. Melford plans to go back to Chicago.

Greer Garson, vivacious, titian-tressed star of many recent outstanding films, came to Torney on Friday afternoon, February 19. Miss Garson arrived while the ambulatory patients' art class was in session. After an introduction to the group, this most gracious lady of the screen had, in a brief moment, won a host of friends with a short greeting, a warm smile and a disarming manner which bespoke her pleasure at being able to bring a little happiness to the convalescents.

Upon leaving this group, Miss Garson was accompanied by Lt. Rexford Rutter, T-4 Russel Genich and T-5 William Willard to the wards which house the more seriously ill patients. Here Miss Garson made her winning personality and inner warmth felt, and all to whom she spoke felt that they had seen a great lady. She perused photographs and talked of friends and loved ones back home with the men. She left many autographs (some on plaster casts) and more smiles in her wake. She is anxious to begin work on her next assignment, the title role in the film "Madame Curie." All at Torney will await its release. Greer Garson has a standing invitation to visit Torney, and we do mean do!

The Tip-Toppers, Pat, Mike, Jerry and Norm, three gals and a guy currently doing radio work in Hollywood, came to Torney on Sunday, February 21, and entertained patients and personnel with swing-styled songs. Norm Berens, the guy, who arranges the scores and writes original music for the quartet, clicked with several vocal and piano solos.

Sam Hinton, curator of the local museum, scored well with songs, instrumental novelties and bird imitations.

This group of entertainers was brought here by Lt. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, managers of the local Deep Well Guest Ranch. Lt. Bennett acted as M. C. To all we say "cheer tanks" for a swell bit of entertainment. The group was accompanied by Guitarists T-Sgt. L. Congdon and Pfc. Gabe Ariaz, Pianist T-5 Roy McDaniel and Drummer Pvt. Don Scott.

COMMISSIONED — George O. Relf, Jr., Palm Springs youth, who was commissioned as a U. S. N. Ensign at ceremonies in New York last week.

George O. Relf, Jr. Wins Commission At N. Y. Ceremonies

George Orvis Relf, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Relf, of the El Encanto Hotel, 415 South Palm Canyon Drive, was among a large class of ensigns commissioned at impressive ceremonies at New York's Riverside church on February 17.

Ensign Relf and his class-mates who have just completed an 18-week V-7 course at the New York training school, were sworn in by Captain John K. Richards, USN, the school's commanding officer. A graduate of Utah University, Ensign Relf is now enjoying a short furlough and will then report for duty.

Lee Gilbert is Now With U. S. Air Force

Lee Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilbert of Palm Springs, last week joined the U. S. Army air corps and is now stationed at Fresno, according to announcement this week.

He graduated from Palm Springs high last week. Following a short stay at Fresno, he will be assigned to an aviation training school.

Fred P. Clatworthy Wins Commission

Lt. Fred Payne Clatworthy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne Clatworthy, winter residents of Palm Springs for many years, is now stationed at the Santa Monica Quartermaster Corps division of supplies, base.

He was recently commissioned as a lieutenant.

FERRYING COMMAND NEWS NOTES

459th Base Headquarters and Air Base Squadron, Ferrying Division, Air Transport Command, Municipal Airport, Palm Springs

We risked a fast sunburn last week by doffing our hats to S-Sgt. Burt O. Randall, S-Sgt. Wells and Sgt. James E. Wilson for receiving the Army Good Conduct Medal.

So it is with pleasure that we continue acquiring a good sun tan by doing the same this week for seven men who have received the Good Conduct Medal for having completed the necessary time of active federal military service and having served with efficiency and fidelity.

They are: M-Sgt. Leo G. McInvalle, T-Sgt. Douglas I. Pirus, T-Sgt. Dominic A. Yemma, T-Sgt. Douglas C. Reiter, Sgt. Michael T. Vecchio, Pvt. First Class Fred W. Cook and Pvt. Timothy E. Shick.

Many more of these and the life of an M. P. is going to be ever so dull.

Slips that pass in the night: In the Chi Chi, T-Sgt. Dick Callan and S-Sgt. Joe Cavallo, telling a sweet young thing: "Aw honey, no one remembers any captain from the last war but everybody remembers Sgt. York"

Tourists: 1st. Sgt. Fielding E. Ballard, Jr., is gone on furlough ... and we hope he doesn't come back ... but for a sincere reason ... all the men are pulling for him to get his orders to report for Officers' Candidate School while he's home because he's a right guy ... Sgt. Tim Donovan is back from his furlough ... and acting as first sergeant in Ballard's place ... M-Sgt. Edward C. O'Neal skied eastward to Chanute Field to attend an inspector's school ... also schooling are Pvt. James C. Chittenden and Cpl. Orley E. Taylor at a Lockheed school in Burbank, and PFC Teddy K. Walls and PFC Dwight Williams at a Douglas school in Santa Monica ... Pvt. John Norkus back from his furlough ... due back soon is Pvt. Leo Newman ... Lt. George M. Bush, squadron adjutant, back at his desk after a duty hop ... PFC Joseph Tornatore completed his first airplane ride, a hop over Palm Springs ... and he picked a good one, riding with Maj. Anthis over the city in the air show along with Co-pilot Robert Erichsen and PFC Warren Balzer, Pvt. Bob Stroschein, Pvt. Roger Newhall, PFC Joe Nardo, PFC Mathew Nizwantowski, Pvt. Erulio Angelosanti and Pvt. Joe Stanzack.

"Dugout"

By the Legion Observer

Cpl. Louis A. Bach, 459th Air Base Squadron, speaking, "The Legion Dugout is a popular rendezvous among Army Air Force men of the Sixth Ferrying Group stationed at the Palm Springs Army Air Field and has become truly an 'oasis in the desert' to the soldiers."

Says Pvt. Dziarnowski, a 210-pounder, from Buffalo, N. Y., built like a professional wrestler and the "strong man" among the soldiers at the air field here in Palm Springs, "I'm always hungry, especially when I'm in town, they know me at the Dugout." Multiply this case by about 500 and you get some idea of the soldiers who rely on the popular Dugout.

With the torrid weather not far away, orange juice is beginning to play the leading role as number one thirst quencher. Cookies are always a close runner-up, home-made ones to be had for the asking. "They're just like mother used to make back home in Iowa," one corn-fed soldier said.

The wide variety of books and magazines on hand also appeal. Books may be borrowed, there is no time limit set and may be returned whenever soldiers are through reading. Mystery stories are in great demand.

The aroma of coffee at night attracts soldiers to the Dugout. "I smell the coffee clear out on the main street," one soldier joked. "When the folks received my letter written on Dugout stationery," one soldier said, "they showed the Palm Springs post mark to everybody in town."

Kyser's broadcast here recently. But if you think he was excited then, you should have seen him when he met that rattle snake. Imagine, reaching for a Lucky and getting a rattler instead!

If you hear a voice behind you and no one's there, it's Pvt. Bob Sohr practicing on that loud speaker set-up at the officers' mess.

Cpl. Walter "Bud" Proctor's job is a Link Trainer instructor. His hobby is playing his accordion and writing parodies, the latest of which is "She's My Air Corps Gal," set to the tune of "Merry Month of May." It follows:

She reminds me of a B-17, She's streamlined, dangerous and lean; She left me at the gate, Like a P-38, But she's my air corps gal.

She's always dancing with a slink, She's controllable as a link; She takes you straight to heaven Like a P-47, Yes, she's my air corps gal.

When she drinks there's always room for more, She carries a load like a B-24; She makes her actions pay Like an A-20A, Yet, she's my air corps gal.

She attracts 'em like the B-19, Yep, she's always on the beam; She's pretty as can be, Like a Douglas DC-3, For she's my air corps gal.

She really is the only one, Who outmaneuvers the P-51; She really is alive, Like our own B-25; Yeah, she's my air corps gal.

We suggest awarding Sgt. Arthur Podway a gilt-edged something-or-other for the swell way he handles the enlisted men's bowling league, especially for the way in which he erases official frowns to make his star player "eligible."

And in closing, it must have been disconcerting to Adolph Hitler see Schickelgruber to learn Palm Springs residents are putting ten per cent of their pay into BONDS instead of bunds!—G. L. G.

Spanish Dancers Will Entertain Soldiers Sunday

Spanish dances and music will feature next Sunday's entertainment at the USO Hospitality house in Tamarisk road, William Dean, chairman of the USO committee, said this week.

The entertainment will be furnished by the group of women from the Smoke Tree ranch who each Sunday, between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m., take charge of entertaining the many men in the armed service who visit the USO center.

FROM DOLL HOUSE

On the program will be Miguel and Racquel and the Doll House orchestra.

The USO is attracting great numbers of soldiers from posts here and in surrounding areas, not only on Sundays but every day. The Smoke Tree ranch women, who take charge every Sunday afternoon, are doing a much-appreciated job, said Mrs. E. H. O'Reilly, vice chairman. Other groups which would like to help in entertaining the many boys from all parts of the nation on other days of the week are urged to get in touch with Mrs. O'Reilly at the USO. The telephone number is 6024.

COOKIES IN DEMAND

The need for cookies and sandwiches is always great, she said, and any contributions will be highly appreciated.

Last week-end was apparently "writing home" week and Mrs. O'Reilly took a huge armful of mail to the postoffice Monday. Many of the boys who said it was their first time away from home, were deeply appreciative of the hospitality accorded them at the Hospitality house.

Taunton and Lux Start Training to Bag Bigger Game

Two popular Palm Springs policemen, Elmer Taunton and Bill Lux, were today preparing for bigger game than disorderly drunks and vagrants.

They left the Village Tuesday night for Fort MacArthur and induction into the U. S. Army.

Both returned Wednesday evening for a week's furlough before starting active duty.

Both were granted leaves of absence by city council last week. Chief of Police Lyle J. Sanard said that no successors for their positions had been named as yet.

Sidney Sanard, Son Of Police Chief, Is In the Army Now

This week, Chief of Police Lyle J. Sanard and Mrs. Sanard had another representative in the armed forces of the nation.

Among the group going to Fort MacArthur from the local area Tuesday night for induction into the army was Sidney Sanard, 18. He returned here Wednesday night for the customary week's furlough before starting active training.

Another son, Bert, is now with the army in Africa and their son-in-law, Lt. H. B. Dunn, is also in service.

Thomas E. Kramer Is Now in Florida

Thomas E. Kramer, formerly driver for Armstrong's Dairy here and who joined the U. S. Navy last year, is now stationed at Delano, Florida, according to word received here.

He was transferred to the Florida fleet air detachment base, from Chicago where he had been for some time.

Ward's Wonders Out in Front in TGH Bowling Loop

Mrs. George P. McNear was hostess to Mrs. Dorothy Curtis, Mrs. Edward H. Maggard and Mr. and Mrs. E. Denman McNear, at dinner at The Desert Inn.

Students to Take Over Government Of City for Day

As in previous years, the students of P. S. H. S. are planning to assume the duties of officials who manage the government of the city for one red-letter day. The date named is Wednesday, March 3, when members of the Student Council and selected students from the senior class will go through a typical day with the city employees. In the evening, a regular meeting of the City Council will be held and the usual business will be discussed, with student "officials" in the harness.

Student Body President Bill Gilbert made arrangements for this day after the school received an invitation to participate in such a program from Mayor Frank V. Shannon. The plan is followed to give students important experience in learning how the city is run.

Those holding office next Wednesday will be: Bill Gilbert, Mayor; Gloria Flavin, acting city clerk; Jeanne Martineau, acting city manager; Donna Crockett, city treasurer; Jack Hoover, police chief; John Outcault, director of public works; Herb Lienau, judge; Norma Webb, librarian; Jim Liechti, health inspector; Carolyn Purcell, city nurse; Norval Scrivens, recreation chairman. Fire chief and city attorney will be selected later. Assistants to the fire and police departments will be Joe Sandeffer and Bill Foster. Councilmen chosen are: Bob Hoover, Bill Curtis, Bettie Willard, Clarence Nicholson, Marian Hohl and Archie Linkletter.

According to school council members, students are looking forward to this experience with much pleasure. They have expressed thanks to Mayor Shannon and other "city dads" for permitting them to undertake the experiment once again this school year.

Another One of THOSE Days Near At High School

Determined that the Junior Class assembly will surpass the Senior Class assembly in all respects and beyond cavil, a committee of "Juvie" Juniors are preparing entertainment extraordinary for the school for Friday, February 26.

Barbara Knowles, chairman of the committee, refuses to disclose any facts concerning the assembly, but she assures students and faculty members that Juniors will not only give them lots of laughs but will aid in the war effort also. "Producing more corn" asks a sapient Senior.

From San Diego comes Lt. Commander and Mrs. J. R. Dancy who are relaxing from Navy duties while enjoying a short leave at The Desert Inn.

Indians Now Turn To Baseball With Track in Offing

BY HERB LIENAU

With basketballs put away and courts deserted by players, Palm Springs athletes are turning their attention to the favorite Yankee game of baseball. The Joe DiMaggio, Dizzy (?) Deans, and Babe Ruths of Palm Springs have dusted off their cages and oiled up their gloves for the coming season.

Suffering the loss of all but two lettermen via graduation and the armed forces, the Indians are forced to start from scratch in preparing a good team. Coach Wood Glover will build the team around Bill Foster and Joe Sandeffer, veterans of last year. Although not experienced, there are many fellows who look good in their gym classes and may prove valuable before the season is under way.

SMITH ON HILL-TOP

Gil Smith, junior from Flintridge, has had some experience at pitching and may carry the load on the mound. With Steve Levi, Dick Mendoza and Pat Harris, three better-than-average pitchers gone, Smith will not find much relief when the going gets tough. Maurice Smith, Sophomore from Tacoma, Washington, has played some baseball and will be used by the team. Paul Valdivia, John Outcault and Herb Lienau have played some intramural baseball and may turn out for the team. Don Gabrielson, from Burlingame enrolled at the high school Tuesday morning, and is reported to have played ball, and when asked if he was going to turn out for the squad, said he wanted to very much and would be out Tuesday after school.

The baseball schedule, although uncertain, has been arranged tentatively to give the Indians two games with Beaumont and possibly two games with Banning. When asked about prospects for the season, Coach Glover said that he had arranged for several games with the Ferry Command. Because of gas and tire rationing, the baseball season has had to be cut short.

THEN COMES TRACK

Following baseball will come the track. In track, as in football, basketball and baseball, the Indians will miss many fellows who earned letters last year and have graduated or entered the service.

Norval Scrivens, only returning letterman, holds the school record in the high hurdles. Although not earning a varsity letter last year, Al Adolph will be a real threat in the high hurdles, along with Scrivens. Bill Foster holds the school record for "B" discus and will report for the varsity squad this year. Milton Knapp, Sophomore, has shown up exceptionally well in gym in the distance races, and will probably be one of the outstanding members of the squad. With fine endurance, Knapp is seen every day practicing on the track and is able to outrun any boy in school at the present time in the mile.

Herb Lienau, middle distance runner, will also be back this year to run for the Indians. Troy Dunn, high jumper from Point Loma, is reported to have cleared 5'8" and will undoubtedly show up very well in the league meet. Jerry Tracy, long-legged Junior has improved greatly since last year and will be used in the 880 or mile. Nick Mutascio, John Hobson and Jim Liechti are a few of the many others who will turn out for track.

Because of transportation problems, there will be only one big meet. This will be an evening track meet and will be held at Coachella. It will start at 4 p. m. and continue on a lighted field until 9 p. m. Beaumont, Banning, Palm Springs and Coachella will participate in the meet, which will produce many thrills. This league meet is the first held at night and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

Lt. and Mrs. R. J. West entertained at dinner at The Desert Inn for Mrs. West's mother, Mrs. John Paul Johnston who is here from Chicago for a visit. Captain and Mrs. P. E. Anderson were other guests. Captain Anderson and Lt. West are of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers attached to the Air Corps and are on duty in the desert.

G. A. A. Plans Substitute for Annual Convention, Slated for Palm Springs

BY NORMA WEBB

Last year at the G. A. A. Convention held at Riverside, Palm Springs representatives made such a favorable impression that it was decided that the convention be held here this coming year. Determined to live up to the honor bestowed upon them, the Girls' Athletic Association Board of P. S. H. S. set to work on elaborate plans for the coming convention. But the war soon made changes in G. A. A. affairs as it has in all other activities. With gas rationing came letters of regret concerning attendance. Soon it became apparent that it would be impossible to hold the convention this year.

A general fund of $111 for the whole confederation will be turned over to P. S. H. S. to cover the expenses of any project undertaken to serve as substitute for the convention.

TO PUBLISH LETTER

This year a news-letter will be published by Palm Springs High School, containing records of G. A. A. activities in all Southern California Schools belonging to the confederation. The news-letter will be in the form of a newspaper, to be passed on to the G. A. A. year after year, and sent to all schools in the confederation. The letter will contain interesting write-ups of the activities of the various sections of the confederation, such as picnics or spreads after a season of some sport, dances, banquets, play days, influences of the war on girls' activities, etc.

The news-letter will use only a part of the $111 in the fund. With the remaining money one of two things will be done: (1) buy a War Bond, or (2) turn in old athletic equipment that can be rejuvenated, and send it to army camps for recreational purposes for the boys in the service. Recent referendums show a preference for buying a War Bond, although no definite decision has been reached.

May We Introduce....

This week we swing into position with another "Sensational Sophomore" boy. He is 15 years old, stands 5'8" from the ground up, tips the scales at 140 pounds and was born on July 17, 1929.

Turning to generalities now, we find that this fellow pals around with such great guys as Bob Lienau, "Little" Bob Pugh, and "Red" Tomkins. He has, shall we say, a "passion" for music, dancing and tennis (which he is very good at playing). However, we find he dislikes smoking and drinking (good man!).

Next we find that L. O. (J. O. happens to be his nickname) has several items on his "favorite" list that need mentioning. First comes food, specifically ice cream, spaghetti, and MEAT. In sports, tennis tops the list and his favorite pastime is "radioing." I've already said he loves music, but now may I tell you that his favorite record is entitled "I Lost My Sugar in Salt Lake City" (what! what a title), and it really "sends him" to listen to Tommy Dorsey's band.

As to love life, he claims he just "plays the field." His particular characteristics is being noted for wearing extremely "loud" plaid shirts.

Editorial...

A SALUTE TO PALM SPRINGS
To you, the Citizens of Palm Springs, we give our salute. You are truly great soldiers. You may not be "glamorized" by a uniform, and you may not be wearing the garb of a factory worker, but you are the people who make it possible for the men behind the guns to win this war.

You have all done your utmost to help buy a bomber which may someday be part of a mighty air force that will bomb Tokyo into surrender. Thus, victory is one step closer.

After the war Palm Springs may look back and say, "We helped win the war by buying a bomber and by making the many small sacrifices that everybody wanted to make."

Yes, to you, the Citizens of Palm Springs, we pay this well-deserved tribute. Your praiseworthy service to your country should rebound to you many times in future years, aside from giving you much present satisfaction.

—RICHARD HEISE

though no definite decision has been reached.

A banquet for the local G. A. A. will be given within the next two weeks—a feast eagerly anticipated by all members. Half of the expense of the banquet will be taken from local funds carried over from last year.

The G. A. A. board consisting of President Carolyn Purcell, Vice-president Polly Purcell, Corresponding Secretary Norma Jean Mabrey, Secretary Doris Neel, Treasurer Babs Neel, collaborating with Miss Hall, their adviser, chose the letter to be awarded to girls with 600 points or more by banquet time. The letter, designed by Marti Robinson, is a "P" six inches in height, based on the old English lettering, but improved upon by Miss Robinson. Also a chenille star, two inches in height, will be awarded the most outstanding girl of the year in G. A. A. participation.

The Board has started tabulating items for the news-letter and will work with the journalism class in assembling the material. Due to the delay in receiving the needed information from many camps of the schools, the progress of the letter has been held up, but the first part of March is the date for completion.

—MARTI ROBINSON

You probably have seen this Sophomore walking around with Bob Hoover at her side. There seems to be quite a case of something there.

She is 15 years old, with blue eyes, brown hair, and freckles. Her curly hair is 5'5" from "terra firma" and she weighs 115 pounds.

Her pet song is "In the Mood" by Glenn Miller, her favorite band leader.

On her "do like" list, there is chocolate of any kind, swimming, gym, and, of course, Bob Hoover. She is evidently an ardent admirer of Dick Heise's editorials, as she wishes that Palm Springs had a recreational center.

She has been in Palm Springs one year. She moved here from Long Beach, where she was born. If she is not with B. H., she can usually be seen with Sallie and Lila.

When asked whom she would like to meet, she replied "I would like to be introduced to Madame Chiang Kai-Chek."

That's all we have on her now, so may we introduce — Barbara Inman.

Noted Doctor Rests Here on U. S. Tour

Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Lahey of Boston, Mass., are resting at The Desert Inn after Dr. Lahey's tour of inspection of naval hospitals which he conducted for Admiral Ross McIntire, surgeon general of the Navy.

Dr. Lahey is the past president of the American Medical Association.

Senior Formal is Given Rating of 'Super' by Dancers

Students do not have many formal dances, but when they do they prove "super" successes. This conclusion is justified by results of the "formal" conducted by the Senior Class Friday evening in the High School auditorium.

After trials and tribulations known to all seniors, the Class of '43 managed to produce what was called by many the best dance of the year.

SET IN GRANDEUR

The setting reminded one of a grand palace ballroom from the first moment you entered the door. Trees and shrubs, donated by Mr. E. E. Hoppe, special over-stuffed furniture, loaned by the Desert Furniture Shop, and a decorated "bar" were novel features of the setting which proved especially attractive to students in attendance.

Among the guests present were three members of the Alumni. They were: Jeanette Isham, dressed in black taffeta gown with blue bodice, escorted by Bob Roy, a senior; John Ryan, escorting Carolyn Purcell, who was wearing a beautiful lei of gardenias; Dick McGonagle, escorting Elsa Kofeldt, who wore a white organdy evening dress.

OTHERS PRESENT

Among other couples present were: Herb Lienau and Marti Robinson, who were, by the way, dashing about keeping things in order, Roger Braniger and Artie Lee Butler, Jeanne Martineau and Sidney Pugh, Marian Hohl and John Outcault, Pat King and Gil Smith, Helene Hanbury and Dick Heise, and Pat Bryce and Jerry Tracy.

Outstanding girl dancers of the evening were Marti Robinson in her stunning Australia green taffeta gown with a dusty rose vest; Artie Lee Butler in her white pique gown; Pat King with dashing blue off-the-shoulder net, and Norma Webb (PeeWee) in her colorful strapless organza.

NOVELTY IS SUCCESS

The novelty dance of the evening was the balloon number. After capturing a balloon, young men dancers presented their catches to the girl with whom they wished to dance next.

Refreshments were served at the "coke" bar.

Miss Carmon Cook and Dr. E. E. Oertel were chaperons for the evening.

Playlet Aids in Buy-a-Bomber Bond Drive in Village

Timed to help boost the Palm Springs "Buy a Bomber" drive, the Speech class of Palm Springs High school put on a playlet entitled "For the Duration" at a special assembly held last Friday.

The play was acted out before a microphone and was broadcast to students assembled in the auditorium. The players were invisible to the audience, and in other ways the program was made to simulate a radio play.

The show started out with a "commercial" urging students to buy war stamps and bonds, and asking them in particular to fill their stamp books this month. The school office reports that $250.00 in stamps and bonds were sold largely in response to the assembly program.

Radio sound effects were produced in such manner as to make the illusion of the radio program almost complete.

Cast members were Polly Purcell, Robert Roy, Matt Hennes, Jeanne Martineau, Bill Gilbert, and Clarence Nicholson. The announcer for the program was Jack Hoover. He was assisted by Carolyn Purcell on the "commercial."

Informal group enjoying dinner at The Desert Inn the other evening were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hinshaw of Beverly Hills, Miss Adaline Crocker of Oakland, Mrs. Rowena Geraghty of Berkeley, Lt. Robert W. Miller and Lt. James V. Grann from Camp Young.

Insatiable Appetite of Students for Apple Pie Sets New P. S. H. S. Record

To bake one apple pie and get lunch for a family of six is conceded to be enough to keep any woman busy for half a morning. It is, therefore, reasonable to assume that Mrs. Rosa "Ma" Hansen, cafeteria manager at the local high school, set some sort of culinary record Wednesday when she, single-handed, baked 16 large-size apple pies and prepared lunches for 100 hungry adolescents all in the same morning.

Several weeks ago "Ma" Hansen baked 10 of her "famous" apple pies. That meant 60 servings of this dessert, but the supply was inadequate. The following week she baked 12, and again the demand exceeded the supply. Last week an all-time record of 15 pies were served, but still calls came for more.

JUST IN TIME

This week "Ma" stretched her maximums in time, equipment, and space and produced 16 of the full-size, typical American desserts, only to learn once again that the point of student satiety was unattainable without some type of mass production methods not within the realm of possibility in a one-cook food laboratory.

Report has it that some "unprincipled" freshmen are "working" a ruse to get two pieces each, and a rationing system is threatened which will put an abrupt stop to such iniquities.

"Ma's" pies are of the standard double-crust variety. Apples are pre-cooked to just the right tenderness and juiciness, and are sweetened expertly to suit student palates. They are barely cold when served. The crusts are fresh and flaky and done to a golden brown. No ro-coco decorations adorn these substantial but delectable pies. Undulations on the crust seams are imprinted by semaphoric thumbs speeding around the periphery of the pie tin as undercover fingers, cilia-like, whirl the tin around with timing as perfect as the measured pacing of a track star.

HOW ABOUT ICE CREAM

There is cinnamon, of course. But no nutmeg or allspice. Good apples, cooked right, don't need these foreign touches, "Ma" thinks. No cheese either. That's for jaded appetites. Students take the pie straight and ask for nothing more — unless it be a little ice cream on top.

Palm Springs students, understandably, are somewhat hard to please in all respects whether they be in the classroom or in the lunchroom. "Ma" has her trying moments, but her apple pies unfailingly restore the comforting approbation which inspires her to carry on.

Wednesday she had hot pork sandwiches, applesauce, buttered carrots, and milk to serve in addition to the apple pies. How does she get the cooking and baking done without help? Only "Ma" knows that.

Try to slip in the cafeteria some afternoon the way two junior high girls did the other day and you'll learn how "Ma" relieves some of her labor shortage. In payment for two coveted sandwiches, the girls had to contract to peel two dozen apples each. Thus important, if minor, contributions were made to the success of the Henry Kaiser pie production methods the following day in the school cafeteria. There are tricks, to be sure, in all trades.

Mrs. Walter E. Cosgriff of Salt Lake City is vacationing at The Desert Inn with tiny daughter, Lyn. Mr. Cosgriff will join them shortly.

W. R. HILLERY

Lest we forget! It was on Washington's birthday several years ago that a mass meeting was called of our villagers who met at the lounge of the DeLuxe Trailer park. We were addressed by Mayor Frank V. Shannon, who was then and had been for several years, Secretary of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. And so was born the first village organization to serve the community. Later the Town Hall was built by the Chamber after meetings had been held in various private homes and even in Nick Zorn's basement.

At the dedication of the Town Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon did not forget they were the godparents to the venture and presented us with the beautiful flag that flew over the hall on Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays this month. The annual meeting of the chamber was held last Monday and the seven board members whose terms expired were again voted to serve for two years. They are C. S. Cobb, W. R. Hillery, Jas. K. Wolshen, C. W. Larison, H. A. Snyder, W. J. Naeff and Frank M. Naley.

The board decided to meet the evening of March the first and organize. The following items were reported on:

The advertising sign which has been maintained for several years near the maintenance camp on "Hurricane Flats," that's on the way to Palm Springs railroad station. The sign had blown down and Mr. Larison was instructed to haul the wreckage away.

President Cobb reported Homer Gould was voluntarily helping after the fire truck. Discussion resulted in Messrs. Cobb and Hillery being named to get the ownership matter straightened out so new tires could be secured for the front wheels. The matter of the fire district was still dragging along with insufficient qualified petitioners.

The annual dues period being at hand it was voted to print a letter and mail out to all those now in the active list plus those who have been members and those who by receiving the letter would be invited to become members.

The Library was reported to be flourishing and well patronized by the guests in our village. Also that a beginning had been made on a building fund that would give the library a special home on the property adjoining the Town Hall on the east.

It was reported a petition was in circulation asking the county to take over and maintain the so-called Dunes Road. Opinion was that this should be done.

The garbage question, aside from its odor, seems periodically a cause of complaint. Those of us who had exhausted our eloquence in selling the job to the present collector urged a "shush, shush" attitude even though the collection was irregular and charges for the service quite arbitrary. We don't like to publicly tell everyone that we fear there would be no successor to our present man and that possibly many places here would be quickly abated without the service.

An alternative would be a rate possibly three times what it is now. Of course, there is another thought. And this is terrible. We petition for inclusion in the Palm Springs Sanitary District and the tail of this kite would probably be annexation to Palm Springs so Ray Sorum could send his trucks out here. Of course those who have called up and complained about the service were not present at the meeting.

Walter Bunker wasn't there and I particularly wanted him to be at the meeting for Walter has agreed to take charge of the salvage drive here. Something we have plead for someone to take over as there is still lots of metal and also much rubber and other articles that would help the war effort and clean up our cluttered premises. Try and get your scrap on a pile on the library lot. Let's get rid of the old stuff and help the cause.

Willard Price was reported by us last week as being "of" Coachella instead of speaking "at" Coachella. The presiding officer introduced Mr. Price as being a resident of "our desert" so we have to watch these things or we might lose some of our esteemed villagers.

W. L. Jordan tells us that the purchaser of the Meissen home is Mrs. Mary Jenkins who also owns a home in our neighboring glamorous village.

Sharon Ruth Yoder arrived at the Redlands Hospital at 4 a. m. the day after Washington's birthday and weighed in for this worldly battle at eight pounds, four ounces. Reports are that mother and daughter, and, of course father Edward, are all doing nicely and the young grandmas Esther Woods and Mary R. Yoder, are certainly cheerful and assure me that in as much as the women are doing more shifts on the observation post than the men that I can expect Sharon to take over unless the war ends quickly.

Speaking of the post reminds me of what I call Kyle's ear. Mr. Jas. W. Kyle contrived a glorified ear trumpet of brightly contrasting cardboard and it is quite effective in slowly turning around with the funnel to your ear until you localize the sound of the plane.

At the Torney Base Hospital was born on February 23, Lois Theresa Foltz.

The mother of this young lady is the wife of fighter pilot Sgt. Martin Foltz of the Marine Corps and is now in the South Pacific. Mrs. Foltz makes her home with her aunt, Miss Verna Groll, at the Outpost Ranch, which is on the Dunes Road. Miss Groll is attached to H. Q. division Torney Base Hospital.

Miss Gaines and Miss Brownless, our local teachers who serve four shifts a week at the post, had to be relieved of their shifts this week while assisting Mrs. Estelle Ewart in distributing the rationing books. With these ladies are also Mrs. McKinnie and Mrs. Johnson. At the same time the other group of ladies mentioned last week are already taking turns in Cobb's Cathedral Grocery instructing customers how to limit their appetites to a point system, otherwise some people are going to "mooch" from their friends who probably will be just getting by through careful planning.

I wish I could skip this note. Acts of vandalism from small boys that we have not been plagued with in the past has appeared lately. We did ask parents to check up on the play habits of their children. Now some are in trouble for damaging a car.

With all this wonderful desert to play in, it would seem that private property would be respected. Parents should teach their children to respect at least that which does not belong to them. Please check on this or it will come back home to you, and how.

Story of Guayule Industry Is Told Palm Springs Lions

Roland Rotty, representative of the Department of Agriculture's Guayule nurseries in the Coachella valley and in charge of one of the nurseries, told members of the Palm Springs Lions Club of the history, culture and ultimate destination of the Guayule industry and the great part it will play in the nation's rubber shortage situation.

First, the speaker said, he wanted to impress his listeners that Guayule rubber was not a substitute for rubber. It is rubber, he said, and can go through the great tire factories' machines without any adjustment needed on the latter.

DESCRIBES HISTORY

He told of the history of Guayule, how it was developed when the supply of rubber was in control of one company which was able to rig the price at above a dollar a pound. When competition cut the price of rubber and made Guayule rubber unprofitable, the industry languished but the controlling company had the foresight to keep a spark of life going in the factories so that when the present rubber crisis arrived, it was easily fanned to life.

It cost the United States government $1,700,000 to take over the industry, but such progress has been made that it was worth while.

CHANGING RAPIDLY

At present, Mr. Rotty said, the picture is changing so often and discoveries are being made so rapidly that the goal of the government may be attained long before the time set. In 1942 it is said 42 million pounds of rubber will be produced.

Methods of culture in nurseries, of transplanting and of refining the weed into rubber, were outlined and many questions were asked by interested Lions.

R. F. "Phat" Graettinger, editor of The Desert Sun, was chairman for the day.

FOUR ARE INDUCTED

Four new Lions were inducted into the club preceding the address of the day, Francis Crocker was in charge of the proceedings.

Those inducted were: Capt. George C. Daily of Torney General hospital; Johnny Devine, grocer, Paul McGuire of Torney hospital, and R. F. Graettinger. Among visiting Lions present was Roy Day of Pomona, former district governor.

Pvt. Emil A. Knorr Training at Fresno

Private Emil A. Knorr is now with the U. S. Army Air Corps at the basic training center at Fresno, he wrote friends this week.

Private Knorr was formerly with Beth Stebbins Road Runner package delivery service for two seasons.

Lt. Herbert Bailey, city manager of Palm Springs, now on leave of absence and with the United States Marine Corps, was a visitor with his family at the Smoke Tree ranch over the week end. Lt. Bailey is now adjutant at the El Centro USMC post.

Thousands of British-made lend-leased barrage balloons now protect the west coast of the United States.

The Good Earth...

Always through time of tribulation—be it war or panic or other crisis—land has remained a solid investment. Valuations may fluctuate somewhat. But the Good Earth is Always the Best Investment.

Now is a particularly good time to invest in Palm Springs real estate. The main reason is that right here are probably the greatest potential real estate values in Southern California. Why is this so? Because right at present prices on undeveloped real estate in Palm Springs is distinctly limited. There are but a few close-in, favorably situated locations in which desirable home sites are available.

It is equally true that at the present there are extremely fine available residences in excellent locations available at prices which certainly will not maintain a short while hence.

Such an ideal desert residence is a four-bedroom home with two servants' rooms, located near the Tennis Club. This fine home which is leased at present for $400 monthly, may be purchased for $17,500.

There is truly a very great interest right now in the purchase of Palm Springs real estate, whether it be residential or business.

Former Publisher And Cambridge Girl to Wed Here

First wedding to be solemnized in the new St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church will unite Miss Reba Carol Godcall of Cambridge, Mass., and William Mason, well known Palm Springs man and former publisher of the Palm Springs News.

The ceremony will be read Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar.

Relatives and friends of the happy couple are gathering in the Village today for tomorrow's ceremony. Mr. Mason's mother, Mrs. Bertha Mason from Palo Alto coming yesterday and his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Duniway from San Francisco also arriving.

Among others arriving for the wedding were Lt. and Mrs. John Porter Clark, the former a prominent local architect who entered the service last fall and is now post engineer at Minter Field, Bakersfield.

Mr. Mason and Miss Godcall met in Cambridge when he was working in the Harvard Research laboratories last summer.

They will make their home in Hollywood. Mr. Mason now being with the Lockheed Aircraft company.

Lewis Wetherall, Racquet Club Pro, Sworn in by Army

Lewis G. Wetherall, tennis pro at the Palm Springs Racquet Club and widely known in tennis circles, will soon be doing his volleying in the U. S. army.

He is among those leaving this week for Fort MacArthur to be sworn into service. He will return for a brief furlough this week-end before going into active service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wuest of Aberdeen, Washington, are vacationing at The Desert Inn with their young daughters, Marilyn and Joanne where they are receiving expert swimming and diving instruction from Bill Lewin at The Desert Inn pool.

Need Still Great For Soft Cloths To Make Dressings

There is still need for old sheets, soft old table cloths or hand towels, or any linen of like nature, to be used for dressings and pads in OB packs for the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association emergency equipment. These packs are provided for use in home cases.

This material may be left at Red Cross headquarters on Palm Canyon Drive, or at the Health Center on East Amado, or Mrs. Charles Burket will be glad to collect them, especially if they are part of a donation which also includes clothing for children or household equipment, such as furniture of all kinds, bedding, mattresses, or other articles needed for a home or its occupants.

The Welfare Association, headed by Mrs. Harold Hicks, is the only organization in the Village to take care of needs of this kind, and is the outgrowth of a consolidation of several groups which did welfare work in former years.

Arnold's Linen Shop Plans Sale

Because of conditions brought up on by the war, no more importation of linen is possible and Arnold's Linen shop, in the Carnell building, this week started to dispose of its broken linen which cannot be replenished.

Mr. Arnold said it was now impossible to import replacements.

Captain and Mrs. E. O. Hinman entertained with a dinner party at The Desert Inn for Col. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, Capt. and Mrs. George Daily, and Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd Matlock.

They say Washington now has information lying around in unopened boxes that would keep a million statisticians laying things end to end until exhausted.

Two Fast Match Games Rolled on Henderson's Alley

While bowlers were chunking it in at Joe Henderson's Palm Springs Bowling Academy last Friday night to swell the total for the Buy-a-Bomber drive, two fast match games were being rolled on the alleys.

In one of the games, the Riverside Merchants quintet took the measure of a Palm Springs five by the margin of 2646 to 2527. Although each game topped the 800 mark only three of the Keglers got above 200, Rosey of Riverside scoring a 201 and a 223 for a total of 588 and Stafford of the visitors registering a 205, which coupled with a 193 and a 194 gave him high series of 592. Ted Ashley's 212 was the high score for the local pin-busters.

In another match game, a quintet of San Bernardino women defeated a Palm Springs fair sex quintet 2350 to 1884. Some high scores for women keggers were registered in this match.

Mrs. Gene Engle, wife of the columnist of the San Francisco News, is vacationing at The Desert Inn with Miss Edith Hall, well known in advertising circles in Oakland.

Lonesome

A failing theatrical production, according to the late George M. Cohen, was making its last stand in a small Ohio town. The attendance was terrible.

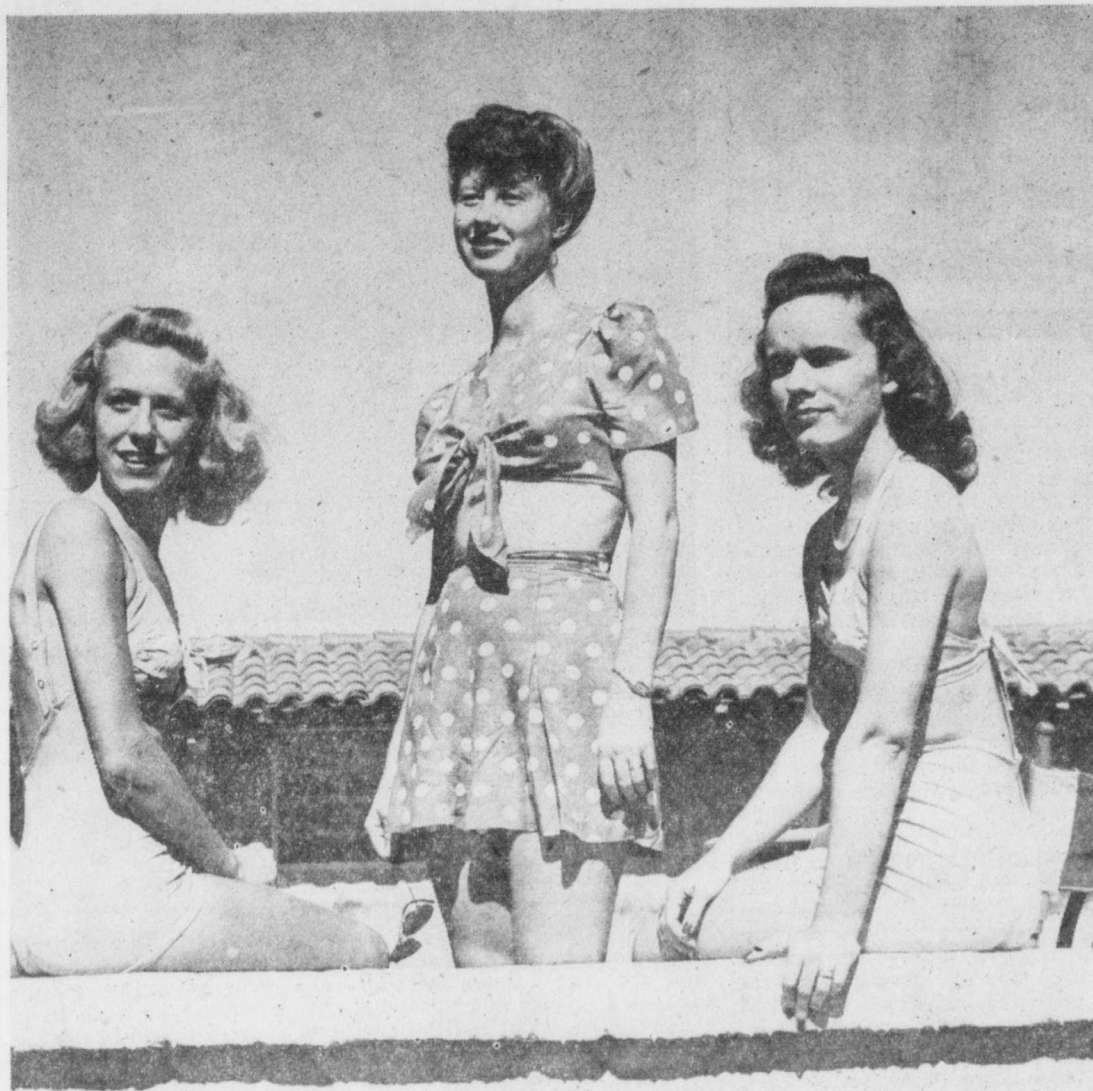

On his way back to the office under the eaves of the building, the business manager stumbled across a little girl dissolved into tears.

"What's the matter, little girl?" he inquired sympathetically.

"I want my money back," wailed the youngster.

"Don't you like the play?" asked the manager. "You've seen only the first act."

"I don't care nuthin' 'bout the play," stormed the little girl. "I'm afraid to sit in this old gallery all alone." —Wall Street Journal.

TIME OUT FOR RELAXATION—Mrs. Robert J. Bennett, Mrs. Bill Jeffreys, and Mrs. Douglas Thropp, wives of Lieutenants in the armored forces take time for a swim at The Desert Inn pool. They are members of the Desert Officers' Wives Club. The members work tirelessly to supply isolated desert hospitals with afghans, utility bags for patients, scrap books, and various other items that add to the comfort of the men confined there.

On This Side...

writer last week when I made some comment on cacti. Sam Hinton, director of the Palm Springs Desert Museum who knows cacti so well he can call every spine by its first name, gives me the works on that one. It's an easy way to fill up this column and, besides, it's a good letter, so I'll just quote Sam in toto. He writes:

"I hate to be critical, but there is a little misinformation contained in your last 'This Side of the Sun' column; Mr. McAllister has the wrong idea about the classification of cacti.

"In the six types of cacti he lists, only three actually belong to the cactus family: Cholla, Bisnaga and Saguaro are O. K. But the Joshua tree is a true lily, the Agave is an Amaryllis, and the Ocotillo belongs to the family Fouquieriaceae. None of these last three is related to the cactus; in fact the Joshua tree is much closer kin to the lowly onion than it is to any of the cacti!

"Also, two important types of cactus are not mentioned: the flat, plate-like members of the prickly-pear and beavertail group, and the small Coryphanthas, sometimes called Pineapple Cactus.

"Thus we have Pricklies, Chollas, Barrels, and Pineapples. The word 'JACOBS' won't work here, but we can make a sentence out of the initial letters. Just remember when you read this, remember the nickname of the editor, and learn the sentence 'Proof Corrected By Phat!' or we might make a poem:

"Prickly-pear, pineapple, barrel and cholla;
"These are the cacti—don't let 'em annoy ya!
"Ocotillo and agave and Joshua—
"These are not cactus by no means, by goshua!
"Hooray for mnemonics!"

Sam D. Hinton
And if I may be so crude, may I add, 'That sticks me.'

SOME JOB—Quotes a correspondent: "I certainly felt hopeful over the entire situation until I went to church the other night and heard the preacher say that the job of civilizing Germany was up to the United States." . . . Another man, undoubtedly a republican, says, "We used to make rubber out of saps. Now rubber is making saps out of us." . . . Says a statistician: "Only one woman in 1000 is affected by color blindness as compared with one man in every ten." All right—how do you explain the pattern of the clothes the two sexes wear?

RATIONING — If all of the hoarders were rounded up and fish-hooks put in their pocket-books, a lot of thing now rationed or about to be rationed would still be free and easy in the stores. Last week, a department store saleswoman told me, a rumor spread that clothes were about to be rationed—and the rush of frantic women to buy on Friday and Saturday was greater than at a bargain day event. And when rationing did not come

Important Session Of Desert Wives Scheduled Monday

Members of the Desert Wives club were urged today to turn out for next Monday's regular meeting at the Fiesta House at the Desert Inn as the session will be a most important one.

It will be the last call to turn in knitted squares for the afghans the club is making for convalescent soldiers at hospitals in the desert training area.

The club's war chest of funds, used to buy materials for making these knitted articles, was given an unexpected boost this week by Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman of the Desert Inn. Several members who had made reservations and paid for them for the recent luncheon of the club at the Desert Inn were unable to attend. Mrs. Coffman refunded the money to the club's treasury and it will be used to buy additional materials.

The club membership is made up of wives of officers now stationed in the desert area.

Got a Book? USO Knows Just Where It Will Fill Want

How about your spare books? Any books—as long as they are readable books.

The kind of books you'd like to read over yourself.

The USO needs books to establish a library. The soldiers who register like to read and they want books of all kinds.

So if you have any spare books, dial the USO's telephone, 6024, and let them know.

P. S.—The soldiers are bent on information. If you've got an encyclopedia — it just would be great.

—they all came in for exchanges Monday despite the government requests that such trade practices be stopped. . . . If clothes are rationed, blame the hoarders for WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson said recently: "Clothing rationing has not even been discussed or been under consideration—and that's a fact. There is no intention to ration unless it becomes absolutely necessary."

CLOSING THOUGHT — Joe Henderson won't have to be so careful to observe all the little kinks in traffic laws hereafter. When the battery on the police car went dead the other day, Henderson obligingly got behind and pushed until Officer Mason got the engine going. . . . And if you haven't received your 1943 Victory tab yet, don't worry. Your check hasn't been lost. The department of motor vehicles is so far behind you may not get your license tab until late in May.

Pay Telephone Bills before the 30th and receive your discount.

Hotels, Cafes and All Public Eating Places Must Sign

All public places, as well as private clubs, boarding houses and lodging houses serving meals, either for meal prices or as part of "board and lodging" will be required to register with the local War Price and Rationing Board on a new OPA form No. R-1307, William A. Lippman, chairman of the board said today.

This new form is not yet available at the local office, but a specimen copy has been received and indicates that considerable book work will have to be done to meet the requirements. It is hoped that an ample supply will be on hand by Monday.

The local board, said Mr. Lippman "will mail them out to all on their Institutional Users list the day they arrive, thus avoiding delay or travel. Registration days will be from March 1st to March 10, and as was the case in January, the Board will allocate days on which the various applicants should call to avoid crowding and undue delay. If you have not received your letter and form by Tuesday, call 2202."

In the line-up of stars are Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Fred MacMurray, Franchot Tone, Ray Milland, Dorothy Lamour, Paulette Goddard, Vera Zorina, Mary Martin, Dick Powell, Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken, Veronica Lake, Alan Ladd and Rochester of Jack Benny fame.

Many other stars are in the cast along with seven great song hits.

Mrs. Turonnet Goes To Greet Brother

Mrs. Armand Turonnet left Thursday for San Jose where she will spend a few days with her family and to greet her brother who is home on furlough from army duties.

Due to her absence, the Altar Society of Our Lady of Solitude Catholic church will not hold its usual meeting tomorrow.

Mrs. William Grant House Guest Here

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martineau have as their house guest, Mrs. William R. Grant.

Mrs. Grant's husband, Lt. Grant, is stationed with the army at Blythe and Mrs. Grant will remain with the Martineaus during his stay at the desert post.

Tiger Sales' Five Hangs on to Lead In Bowling Loop

Sales Plaza Market Bowlers increased their lead in the close Major Bowling loop Wednesday night by taking three points from Gordon Youngs' quintet while their closest rivals for the top spot, Kenny DuBose's Thrifty 5 and 10, was splitting even with the Modern Amusement team.

Teams rolled according to past performances Wednesday on the Palm Springs Bowling Academy alleys and there were no changes in the standings.

Hough of the Associated Oil quintet was the only bowler to crack 200 in the evening's play, scoring a 209 in his third game but Kennall of Youngs' Liquor with a steady 193-190-192 for a 575 held the high series honors for the evening.

Standing of the teams after Wednesday's rolling was:

	High	High	Game	Ser.	W	L
Sales Market	5	3	45	27
Thrifty 5 & 10	6	5	43	29
Youngs Liquor	4	0	37	35
Gibbs Drug	3	2	32	40
Associated Oil	2	4½	31	41
Mod. Amuse.	2	2½	27	45

Ration Books Run Low, Police Chief Makes Speedy Dash

Chief of Police Lyle J. Sanard came to the rescue yesterday with a hurried dash to Riverside and to the office of County Clerk Gordon Pequegnat to pick up more No. 2 Ration books, when the local supply showed dangerous signs of dwindling too rapidly.

The chief's request was for 3,000 books.

OPA headquarters in Riverside sent an SOS to Los Angeles to replenish shrinking supplies.

Three Successful Clinics Staged at New Health Center

Three clinics were held at the Palm Springs Health Center, 299 East Amado road this week, and all were highly successful, Mrs. Madge Holderman, public health nurse reported today.

Two of the clinics were held on Tuesday. The usual Monday pre-natal clinic and the usual Tuesday child health clinics were held on Tuesday because of the Monday holiday with Dr. Mildred Van Cleve, county pediatrician, in charge.

Dr. W. J. Zach was here Wednesday to conduct a health clinic for Indians. He is connected with the U. S. Indian service.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, Dr. Harry O. Katz of the U. S. Indian service will return to Palm Springs for health work in connection with the Indians. He conducted a dental clinic for local Indians last week.

Beautiful Floral Display Arranged

W. L. Cooke of the Palm Springs Florist shop has on display today a beautiful Calla lily, sent him from Carmel. It is attracting much attention at his shop. He also has a fine array of potted plants on exhibit.

Mr. Cooke said that he had just been made a member of the Florists Telegraph Delivery association, enlarging his service to Village patrons.

HERE ON BUSINESS

Henry Lockwood, well known attorney, was in Palm Springs this week looking after his legal business affairs here.
